Early Learning Center

- The Early Learning Center has supported low-income families for over 30 years, offering free programs for children from prenatal to age 5.
- Programs include In-Home Family Support, Toddler Transitions, and Preschool, tailored to young children's developmental needs.
- We engage parents in their children's education through interactive activities, fostering academic success.
- We are one of the highest-scoring Early Learning Centers in the state, as determined by the high-quality school readiness assessment.
- Our small class sizes, bilingual classrooms, and play-based approach rank us among Utah's top Early Learning programs.

K-6th Elementary School

- Guadalupe Center's K-6 Elementary School serves Utah's most vulnerable students, with the highest poverty rate among Title I and charter schools.
- Educates up to 300 students in various subjects, including reading, writing, and math.
- Guadalupe provides several specialists and interventionists to support our students.
- Focuses on personalized learning with small class sizes and dedicated teachers.
- Offers daily busing, free meals, and Afterschool/Summer School programs to support success.

Out-Of-School Time

- Our Afterschool and Summer School programs engage over 450 Pre-K to 6th grade students annually, providing essential academic support and enrichment activities.
- These programs offer a wide range of enrichment activities such as cultural dance, violin, coding, and STEAM projects, fostering creativity and critical thinking.
- Through our many community partnerships, students participate in specialized programs that enhance their learning experiences.
- Our Out of School Time program provides periodic assessments to measure social-emotional learning growth.

Adult Education

- Established in 1966 in Salt Lake City, the program has evolved into a year-round initiative.
- Provides in-person classes for all English proficiency levels, along with career training and citizenship preparation, promoting digital literacy and job stability.
- For every 100 hours of ELL classes, the average Adult Ed student increases their income by $9,000.
- The program was awarded the GOAT award from the Utah State Board of Education based on federal-level gains.
- Adult learners can access early care and learning services for their children, creating a supportive environment for both parents and kids.
