Discussion and Possible Action Items

Rural Community Opportunity Program Grant Application:

Mayor Nay spoke to the council. She stated that to go after the Rural Community Opportunity Grant they will need to get their application in today. City administrator Dennis Marker addressed the council. He let them know that they will be going after the total amount of $600,000. This will require a 20% match, but He will also be going after a grant to help with the City match. He showed them a couple of design concepts. They are hoping to add additional parking behind the Catholic Church, Benderz, and the currently vacant old Gunnison Valley Bank building. They are also looking to finish a portion of the basement in the City Building. They will know by the end of the year and that they will have 2 years to use the funds.
