15. Staff Reports:

Seth Manning: Seth gives updates on various inspections and property inquiries.

Travis Richards: Travis discusses a water break they had in the Cemetery. He states that it has been fixed. He states that they have a lot of forms ready to go for cement if we get anymore.

Dani Tuttle: Dani discusses that we are able to get an Amazon Prime account free through the state and will get that going. She also explains that on Wednesday she heard something hit the window in the office and seen today that the window was cracked. This will be addressed and will get estimates to get this fixed.

Amanda Lake: Amanda reminds the Council that the new Pickleball Courts ribbon cutting is Saturday, September 20th. Amanda also states that the Service District might be raising their rates, which means that we will have to raise ours. The city typically raises the water rates by 2% every year. Amanda also explains that she was contacted by a pre-med student wanting to hold a free health clinic for the city. There was concern about liability, so Amanda will find out that information and verify.

16. Council Reports:

Tracy Addley: ISO Fire people came today and the insurance will stay the same. He did mention that the Fire Departments record keeping needs to improve Kari Alton: Kari states that YCC went around and did "You've Been Boomed" to some citizens of Orangeville to promote interactions in the Community.

Kirk McQuivey: Kirk had no report, but Mayor Bell welcomed him to City Council and went over his responsibilities.

Kevin Butler: Kevin states that the himself, Amanda Lake and Dani Tuttle attended the groundbreaking of Valor Atomics at the San Rafael Research Center. Kevin explains that there will be potential for high-paying jobs and economic growth in the community in hopes of manufacturing these test reactors. This is supposed to be operational by July 4, 2026. Mayor Bell expressed the idea of annexing them into the city.

17. Mayor's Report: Mayor Bell states that we have received the new snow plow. Mayor Bell also states that it might be a possibility of needing to adjusting the City's general fee schedule to compensate for budget shortfalls. Mayor Bell also states that Andy Thompson has given his 2 weeks' notice. Mayor Bell discussed the possibility of keeping Richard Miles on as a part-time basis for additional help when needed. Mayor also mentions that Joe Valley Fest is coming up on October 2nd at the park and are looking for community projects.
