Utah Code § 54-17-302(5) requires the PSC to issue an order within 120 days of Rocky Mountain Power's filing of its Application, unless the PSC determines additional time to analyze a significant energy resource decision is warranted and is in the public interest. The parties at the scheduling conference unanimously stipulated that, here, additional time is warranted and in the public interest. Based on their representations and the PSC's review of RMP's filing, the PSC finds the additional time to adjudicate this matter that the stipulated schedule affords is both warranted and in the public interest.
