Second: Brian Doughty

Outcome: Motion carried unanimously, (4-0)

C. NEW BUSINESS ITEMS

1. Open and Public Meeting Act Training – Jennifer Huntsman, Senior City Attorney

Jennifer Huntsman, City Attorney, reviews the statutory requirement of providing annual training to all members of public bodies that are subject to the Open and Public Meetings Act. Ms. Huntsman provides clarification on what constitutes as a public body and how this formally applies to established boards and advisory committees with decision-making or advisory authority, not ad-hoc scoring. This Act recognizes that the Reinvestment Advisory Committee's business should be viewed by the public as open and transparent.

2. 9 Line Community Reinvestment Area Anti-Displacement Strategy- Makena Hawley, Project Manager and Lauren Parisi, Senior Project Manager.

Makena Hawley, with support from Lauren Parisi, presents the internal guiding strategy for Anti-Displacement in the 9 Line project area. Discussing how displacement contributes to neighborhood instability, health and wellbeing challenges, increased poverty, and disproportionate harm to historically marginalized residents and whether via demolition or rising costs displacement affects the entire city ecosystem. The strategy is designed to be used as an administrative guide tailored to CRA's tools and geography. Aligning with Housing SLC and Thriving in Place, with the objective of keeping long-term residents and supporting sustainable development. Ms. Hawley and Ms. Parisi concluded presentation, inquiring after feedback and recommendations.

D. DISCUSSION AND COMMENTS

Amy Rowland inquired whether tenant preference applies to people displaced by demolition or whether it can be applied to residents priced out of the neighborhood due to rising rents.

Ms. Parisi and Ms. Hawley respond and, acknowledging a limitation in the tenant preference policy, agrees it would be valuable to dig deeper and explore more intentional approaches. Exhibiting more thoughtfulness and flexible eligibility could be incorporated regarding all the different situations that exist.

Ms. Rowland commented on even with new development within the city, catering to young newcomers, how this isn't helping long-time residents or even previously displaced to return to the city.

Baxter Reecer commented about community council and engagement. Encouraging to reach out to the community not only to educate on available programs, builds a cohesion and the community begin seeing themselves as part of a shared community with any new development.

Ms. Hawley and Ms. Parisi respond that this area spans multiple areas, Glendale and Poplar Grove. Agrees that a stronger, more intentional outreach would help the residents understand available programs and marketing ways to integrate organic growth and soft transitions.

Mr. Reecer inquired about what specific metrics will be used for measuring displacement.

Ms. Parisi responds, in error, that members did not receive full attachments and will send those out immediately. There are metrics in place, and they will be sure to clearly demonstrate whether programs are working.

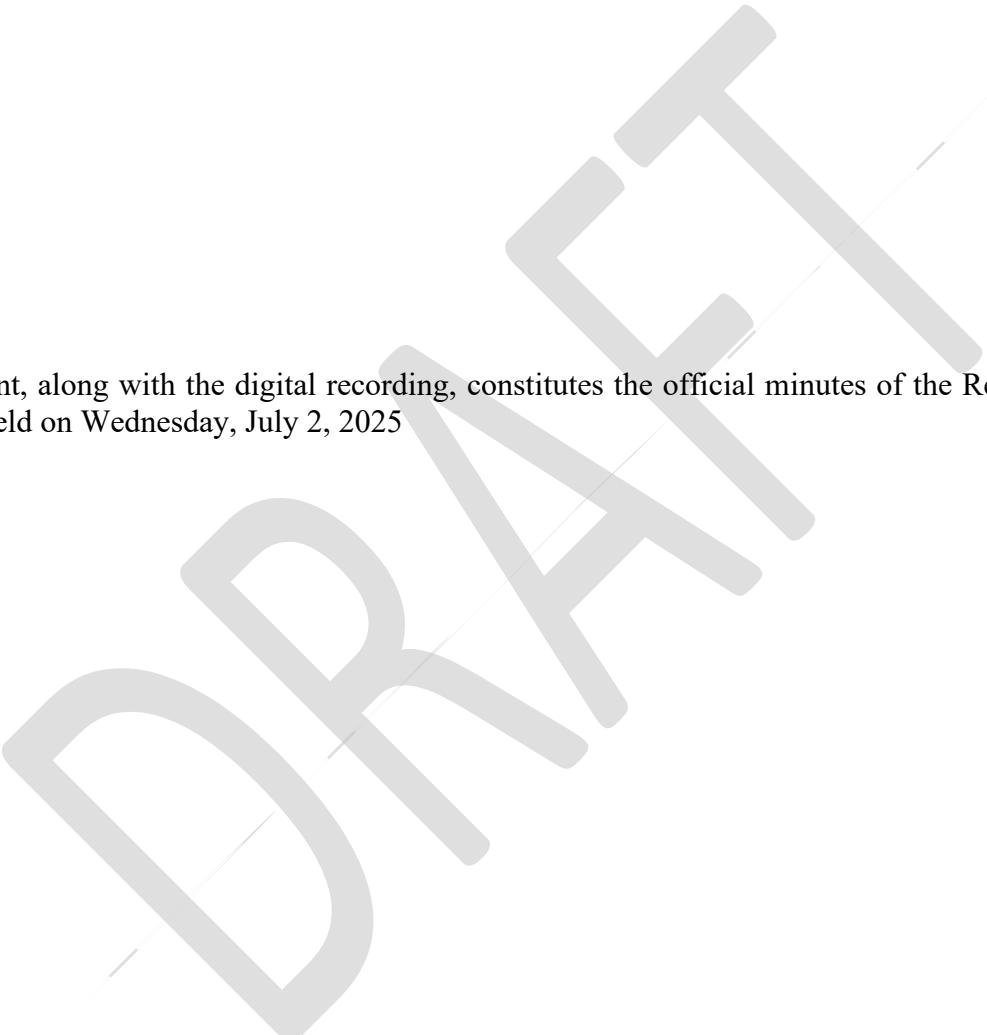

E. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:56pm

RE: Informational Briefing and Feedback Request for the Salt Lake City Affordable Housing Construction and Preservation Dashboard

REQUESTED ACTION: Requesting feedback for the SLC Affordable Housing Construction and BUDGET IMPACTS: None

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

In January 2025, Salt Lake City (“City”) released its Affordable Housing Construction and Preservation Dashboard. This dashboard is provided to the public with information on each affordable housing development for which the City has provided support.

The City has used this tool in the last year to provide a quarterly update to the public on its support of affordable housing construction and preservation. The dashboard is an effort led by the Community Reinvestment Agency and supported by the Community and Neighborhood Department.

CITY COORDINATION:

Community and Neighborhoods

ANALYSIS & ISSUES:

The Agency is requesting feedback from RAC on how the Agency could improve this service to Salt Lake City residents. This could include comments about making the tool easier to use, recommendations for additional information to provide, or suggestions about the marketing or promotion of the dashboard itself.

PREVIOUS BOARD ACTION: None
