

PUBLIC NOTICE

Accepting Applications – Planning and Zoning Commission

The City of Naples invites community members to consider serving on the Planning and Zoning Commission. There are three (3) open positions, and we encourage residents who are interested in shaping the future of our community to apply.

The Planning and Zoning Commission plays an important role in reviewing development proposals, zoning matters, and long-range planning efforts to help guide responsible growth in Naples.

Applicants must meet the eligibility requirements including residency within the City of Naples, must be registered voters, and able to attend meetings on the 3rd Thursday of each month.

Interested individuals should submit a letter of intent describing why they would like to serve and any relevant experience or interests they bring to the Commission.

Letters of intent must be received by January 20, 2026.
