Steve, will you please add this email to the materials that will be distributed in advance of the next TEC meeting?

Also, please add an agenda item - email from Target River. I'll talk about it.

As we close out the year, our team at Target River wanted to share something heartfelt that you played a role in making possible.

Rather than sending traditional holiday gifts, Target River continued our tradition of giving on behalf of our clients—supporting nonprofits whose missions strengthen families, uplift communities, and create lasting change.

This year, our contributions included direct donations to the following nonprofits:

- Support The Enlisted Project (STEP) – Providing financial counseling and emergency support to junior military families.
- Outreach For Nazareth Orphanage (OFNO) – Enhancing the lives of children at the Nazareth Orphanage in Tecate, Mexico.
- Saprea – Healing and empowering survivors of child sexual abuse.
- The John Volken Academy – Offering long-term residential addiction recovery programs.
- Enable Utah – Creating employment and enrichment opportunities for individuals with disabilities.
- WHOlives – Delivering sustainable clean-water drilling technology to communities in need.

In addition to these donations made in your honor, our team also participated in the Giving Machines, a unique charitable experience that allows people to “purchase” items like meals, hygiene kits, warm clothing, and other essentials for local families.

Through the Giving Machines, Target River contributed to organizations strengthening communities, directly helping families receive food, support, resources, and hope during the holiday season.

Your partnership with Target River is what makes this possible. Because of you, these organizations will reach more people, expand their impact, and continue their critical work across both local and global communities.

Thank you for the trust you place in us. We are grateful for the opportunity to do meaningful work together and look forward to achieving even more impact in the year ahead.

Warm regards,
Target River
