ASD Transportation Department

Joe Hayes, Operations Director and Rex Brimhall, West Transportation Director, updated the Board of Education on the current status of the Transportation Department. They presented options for either maintaining individual transportation departments for the new districts or implementing a shared model. The presentation included an overview of how ineligible routes are determined, the criteria for areas to qualify for transportation, and the current structure of the department. Additionally, they outlined potential configurations for the Aspen Peaks transportation department, under a shared services model with another district, potential financial projections, and possible third-party service options.

Mr. Hayes and Mr. Brimhall fielded questions from the Board of Education.

The meeting adjourned at 5:06 pm.
