Monthly Subcommittee Check-in Reports

Conduct subcommittee monthly check-in reports from subcommittee heads:

Preservation (Chris Schow)	Discuss potential micro-grants from proceeds of wreath silent auction. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 12 wreaths have been donated.</li><li>• The money collected from the auction will be used toward a micro-grant.</li><li>• The thoughts are that interested applicants will submit an application and the commission will discuss eligibility.</li><li>• Chris will be researching this further and will have an update in January.</li></ul>
Community Outreach (Amy Wadley)	Outline progress of the Victorian Christmas at the Old Town Hall event. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Amy’s niece will perform.</li><li>• American Heritage will be singing too.</li><li>• Fill the 1st hour with live performers and see how it goes for the 2nd hour.</li><li>• Only one participant has signed up for the Gingerbread house contest, but the Gingerbread houses are great and it’s too late to give up hope.</li><li>• Soaplicity and Rosebud had mentioned an interest in doing a wreath. Laurel will check and see if they’re still willing.</li></ul>
Archives (Sharalyn Howcroft))	Update on oral histories. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Sharalyn met with the Oscarsons and collected a lot of fun stories.</li></ul>
History & Publications (Laurel Cunningham)	Explain “Christmas in Pleasant Grove” book project and its data-collection storytelling event on December 15. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A light lunch is being held with the goal of collecting Christmas stories from PG past.</li><li>• Will record and just let people talk.</li><li>• Encouraged to spread the word and invite the long time Pleasant Grove residents.</li></ul>

Other Business Items

1. Amandas Rojas resigned from the Commission.
2. The DUP would like to partner with us to place signage at the Manila Lime Kiln. We will let them take the lead.
3. Our December 18 Historic Preservation Commission meeting is cancelled.
