JIM WILSON: CONTINUED DISCUSSION OF REQUEST TO KEEP FORMER DWELLING ON PROPERTY FOR STORAGE IN SKYLINE MOUNTAIN RESORT, LOT L-20

Jim and Diane Wilson and Scott Olsen are present. The Commissioners reviewed the information that the Wilsons left at their last meeting with the Commissioners. Because the building is a trailer that was used as a dwelling and the Wilsons signed an agreement to remove it, the Commissioners ask that the building be removed. Mr. Wilson asks again if the trailer can remain for storage. He states that he signed the agreement under duress. He met the fire marshal's requirements for keeping the trailer in place and excavated a hole for the new dwelling based on the required distance from the trailer. They are concerned about the decision changes throughout this process. First, the fire marshal told them how far the trailer needed to be from the new dwelling. Then the building official asked for a letter stating that they will not dwell in the trailer. Now the zoning administrator is requiring the trailer be removed, and not used as a shed because it had been used as a dwelling. Zoning Administrator Scott Olsen explains that this is the first time the County has allowed a dwelling to remain while a new dwelling was being built in a recreational subdivision. The Wilsons state that there are lots of trailers that remain on property that have cabins on them. Currently, the Wilsons have 120 days from January 10, 2015 to remove the trailer. They will check with Scott Olsen for an extension if it is needed.
