Board Members In Attendance: Matt, Alan, Kadee, Jennica, Kristina and Charlotte on behalf of Sheri.

Public in attendance: none

Minutes from Oct. (44 min) Motion to approve minutes by Alan, Matt seconds, all in favor.

City Business: New Mayor is elected.

Director's Business (Sheri) : none.

Committees reports and discussions:

Christmas Party for next month: Will be at Matts, house address and sign up are in the group me chat. Potluck, and book exchange with some games. Starting @7. Be prepared to possibly talk about the book you bring for book exchange.

For the next agenda, Matt brought up that we should put up a motion to allow alternates to vote so that they feel more included in the proceedings of the meeting. Especially if a full quorum is not available. The committee discussed having an interview for another alternate so that when an open position happens, they will feel comfortable in being on the board already.

- Chair - Kristina
- Vice Chair - Barry
- Secretary - Jennica
- Program - Emily & Julie
- PR - Matt & Kadee, They shared the spreadsheet and will update the emails and list.

Book Minute: Discussed The Small and the Mighty by Sharon McMahon.

Some key questions and comments:

How have you seen small actions in your life or others make ripples? Kristina talked about keeping a gratitude journal and sharing it with her music students and a parent reached out to her saying her daughter is now writing a gratitude journal.

The next question was: Do you agree that hope is a choice and not a feeling? Matt brought up how a police officer said that sometimes we deal with good people on their worst days and it helps them have the empathy to help the people they are serving.

Book Club idea / Book Minute for January: Think cold
