MAYORS COMMENTS

Mayor Packard welcomed the Council, staff, and those in attendance.

Mayor Packard commented he recently traveled to Tansania and expressed how very blessed we are to live in the United States.

CEREMONIAL

1. Swearing in of the Springville City Youth Council

Councilmember Ellingson reported on the activities of the Youth City Council. She stated that members visit various city boards, provide service throughout the year, and assist during Art City Days. She also reported that the Youth City Council recently traveled to the state capitol, where they met with state legislators.

Mayor Packard conducted the swearing-in ceremony for more than thirty Youth City Council members.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Mayor Packard introduced the Public Comment section of the agenda and inquired if there were any written requests to speak.

Brandon Ashby spoke regarding clarification of the chicken ordinance. He stated that ten years earlier his household had included nine children and they had relied heavily on eggs. He said he had reviewed the current laws and requested that existing rights be maintained without negatively affecting neighbors. He expressed that he was not supportive of a permit process and stated that he appreciated the work of the council.

Emily Anderson commented on the expected egg production from six chickens and referenced how the law is currently written. She stated that her family participates in community service by raising chicks and sharing eggs. She said that allowing more chickens on larger lots could benefit the community.

Quinn Adamson stated that he chose to live in Springville because of land availability. He reported that his family keeps chickens and uses horses in parades. He described receiving assistance from the community and public safety personnel during a severe wind storm and said he later provided eggs in return. He expressed support for allowing more chickens on larger lots.

Mayor Packard read into the record a comment submitted by Jamie Duncan.
