24 themselves.
25

26 2. PUBLIC COMMENT
27

28 There were no public comments.
29

30 3. REPORT-NSL READS EVENT (CAMILLE)
31

32 Lori Seppi reported on the NSL Reads event which was held March 5th with local author Erin
33 Stewart. She said Erin visited two schools and then participated in the NSL Reads event with 34 presentation and book signing. She noted that advertising for the event began in January along
35 with the commencement of the writing contest. She added that the theme for this year's event
36 was "Make Your Own Magic". Ms. Seppi continued that the NSL Reads event included
37 representation from the Davis County Library, Little Free Libraries, a photo booth, an NSL
38 Events Committee table, and The Kings English Bookshop who hosted the book signing.
39 She shared that there was a Little Free Library prize giveaway along with the winning writing
40 contest entries which were announced in the City newsletter and published on the website.

41

42 The Committee reviewed the NSL Reads event and observed that the event was well attended
43 with the majority of the seats being filled. It was noted that there were fewer children in 44 attendance which was potentially due to the fact that one less school participated this year. They 45 shared information on the library card activity to obtain stamps with a prize for those who 46 completed, the NSL Reads notebooks, and the décor which included balloons and themed 47 objects.

48

49 Camille Thorpe reviewed the next event which was the America250 “Three by Three” challenge
50 to read three books by July 3rd.

51

52 Gentry Holbrook shared a suggestion for next year’s theme for NSL Reads which was graphic
53 novels (comic book). She explained that this could include a create your own panel story with 54 10, 20, or 50 panels depending on the age group. She said the panel template and an online
55 PowerPoint tutorial on how to create a graphic novel could be shared online with participants.

56

57 Ms. Holbrook commented that the graphic novel could be any theme (fantasy, romance, super 58 hero) and applicants could also partner with someone (one person to draw and one to write). She 59 added that the subcommittee would suggest that if there were budget provided, the winners could 60 have their graphic novel published and put in the Little Free Libraries around the City (20 total 61 LFL).

63 Gentry Holbrook mentioned that she would be the citizen chair for the Unity in the Community
64 Back to School Night event. She suggested that surplus NSL Reads swag (notebooks, stickers)
65 could be handed out at this event.

66

67 The Committee discussed the NSL Reads writing contest with three levels (adult, young adult, 68 and child) and first, second, and third place in each category. They discussed the rules including 69 requiring the submitter be the creator of their work whether it was hand drawn or done online.
70 They discussed the cost to publish the graphic novels and estimated the cost around $500.

71

72 Sherrie Pace commented that she had requested the City Council increase the Arts Committee
73 budget from $1,000 to $2,000. The budget will not be approved until June.

74

75 The Committee then mentioned they would love to have Shannon Hale as the featured author at a
76 future NSL Reads event.

78 4. DISCUSSION-2026 MURAL PROGRAM AND POSSIBLE IMPROVEMENTS TO
79 THE VETERAN’S PLAZA

80

81 The Committee discussed the mural program and update on a potential location.
82 Camille Thorpe reported on the Veteran’s Memorial Plaza and her assignment to investigate
83 metal panel art. She said the goal was to alleviate landscaping changes, issues, and extra cost.
84 She explained the issues with paint and suggested one large flag across the back consisting of 85 cutout metal or similar to what would be done at Hatch Park. Sherrie Pace said staff could work
86 with the company that was producing the signage for Hatch Park along with the addition of 87 lighting.

88

89 Camille Thorpe mentioned that Bountiful City had a traditional military memorial that included
90 NSL City veterans and others in the area. She added that the City did not need to replicate the 91 Bountiful Memorial by adding veteran names. Heidi Smoot noted that the Bountiful memorial
92 was fully funded by veterans and updated each year.

93

94 Camille Thorpe spoke on completing the City’s Veteran’s Memorial Plaza including the need for 95 signage and the art installation.

96

97 Sherrie Pace asked about installing the metal panel without impacting the existing sprinkler
98 system. David Frandsen commented that he felt it could be done especially if the intent was to 99 allow the metal piece to become weathered.

100

101 Sherrie Pace explained that the sign company, which would be utilized in Hatch Park, could take 102 any art and create a sign or finished metal piece. She spoke on having a call for artists to create 103 the design. She mentioned there was already a design for Hatch Park.

104

105 The Committee discussed different themes including a flag, orchards/trees, a flag with a tree,
106 incorporating veteran names, and requesting bids from a local company, Falcon Sheet Metal,
107 who could cut images in metal.

108

109 Sherrie Pace recommended preparing a plan and then requesting a budget from the City Council.
110 She suggested obtaining estimates, asking for a budget for this project, and then requesting 111 proposals from artists. David Frandsen was asked to request a quote from Falcon Sheet Metal for 112 art/sign (cut metal).

113

114 5. DISCUSSION-ST GEORGE ART AROUND THE CORNER AND SLC MURAL FEST

115

116 Camille Thorpe commented that she could attend the St George Art Around the Corner. Sherrie
117 Pace noted that Camille had asked if part of the Art Committee budget could be used to 118 reimburse her for a ticket to the artist’s social. Sherrie explained the new art would be revealed

119 on March 28th and felt it may be helpful to review the art and get an idea on pricing. Heidi Smoot
120 commented that she would be St George in April and could view the art pieces then as well.

121
122 Heidi Smoot commented that it felt premature spend any budget to send someone to attend the St
123 George Art Around the Corner because the first location for public art would be Hatch Park
124 which would not be completed this year. Sherrie Pace noted that Hatch Park would be completed
125 in 2028 and recommended attending and working towards a plan to begin obtaining public art
126 next year. She suggested that Art Committee members could view the public art in St George this 127 year, if they were in the area, to gather information for future planning purposes.

128
129 Sherrie Pace spoke on the Salt Lake City Mural Fest on May 9th from 2 to 8 p.m. She noted that 130 the murals would be unveiled in May and asked if the Arts Committee would like to view the 131 murals together.

132
133 Camille Thorpe mentioned Hughes on Redwood Road who would be interested in having a 134 mural on their building next year. She added that they were interested in a particular theme for 135 the mural which was mental health (Alzheimer's).

136
137 6. UPDATE ON USE OF EAGLEWOOD EVENT CENTER FOR MUSIC EVENTS

138
139 Sherrie Pace reported that she spoke with the City Manager and the Golf Course Manager about
140 hosting music events at Eaglewood Event Center. She continued that the Golf Course Manager
141 had recommended Sunday nights for these types of events. She noted that the City Manager
142 would review requests for specific dates. She said the Golf Committee was preparing a policy for 143 the rental of the Eaglewood Event Center for City committee sponsored events.

144
145 7. DISCUSSION OF ITEMS FOR CONSIDERATION AT FUTURE MEETINGS

146
147 Sherrie Pace noted that the Committee generally met on the fourth Monday which would be
148 April 27th. She requested that as she would be unavailable on that date that the next Arts
149 Committee meeting be held on April 20th.

150
151 The Committee discussed the National Anthem contest on May 8th at City Hall with two judges
152 from the Arts Committee (Rachel and Tori).

153
154 Heidi Smoot noted that ten residents had signed up for the contest with time slots ranging from 1
155 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
