B. LBA PUBLIC HEARINGS:

1. Resolution: Budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building
Authority for Fiscal Year 2025-26

The Board will accept public comment and consider approving a resolution that would adopt the final budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building Authority of Salt Lake City, Utah for Fiscal Year 2025-26.

The LBA's Capital Projects Fund for Fiscal Year 2025-26 only includes the bond debt services for the Glendale and Marmalade Libraries. (Other Capital projects throughout the City are included in the Mayor's Recommended Budget.) The LBA is a financing tool for cities and government entities, like libraries, to bond for capital projects at better interest rates. Capital projects are big projects like parks, public buildings, and street projects.

Nathan Peters spoke on a CIP request for speed bumps in the Fairpark neighborhood and requested that funding be used to install safety measures.

Kim Paturzo spoke on a CIP request for additional safety measures to be implemented in the Sugarhouse area.

Gary Tadesco spoke on a CIP request for the Safe Streets Program, including the installation of a traffic circle around the University of Utah communities, highlighting the poor visibility for pedestrians and residents.

Robbie Reber spoke on mountain biking and hiking accessibility around the city and requested the installation and completion of new trails for all levels to use.

Jane Anderson spoke on mountain biking and hiking accessibility around the city and requested the installation and completion of new trails for all levels to use.

Ned Skanchy spoke on mountain biking and hiking accessibility around the city and requested the installation and completion of new trails for all levels to use.

Peter Corroon spoke on CIP request item 54 for Main and Broadway Shade, which was not selected for funding, and requested reconsideration for funding the updates due to safety concerns.

Ada Skanchy spoke on mountain biking and hiking accessibility around the city and requested the installation and completion of new trails for all levels to use.

Samuel Rowan from District 4 spoke on a CIP request for speed bumps and the restriction of diesel trucks driving along 2100 South to create safety for the community.

Josh Quigley, representing the East Central Community Council, spoke on a CIP request for Item G19 1200 East Island Reconstruction that was not selected for funding, and requested a modification to address the needed repairs to curbs and sprinklers to prevent the continued die-off of newly planted and mature trees from lack of water and car destruction.

Elisabeth Barrows spoke about general parks and open space funding, requesting that more community programs and activation be implemented to enhance the trails, thereby helping to combat crime and drug issues on the unused trails.

Joseph Murphy proposed a change to the current CIP application and selection process, suggesting that a portion of the budget be allocated for safety measures to create a more effective way to address local safety issues.

Public Comments:

Judith Murphy requested a pause in construction around the City to conduct an environmental impact study before more infrastructure is built.

Cheneil Hill, represented the Stand Against Fear and Exploitation (SAFE) nonprofit organization, spoke on community safety and statewide prison reform to help protect children from offenders entering city parks and public areas.

Austin Joseph spoke about non-invasive safety precautions that could be implemented to help enhance the community's safety, instead of relying on expensive surveillance cameras.

Matthew Reardon spoke on federal building accountability and the unconstitutional silencing of journalists.

Ricardo Mejias thanked the City for the Calm Your Streets Program, stating the results were beneficial, and requested engagement from the Council at the upcoming community meeting to discuss the We Connect Program and provide information on creating community proposals.

Ian McCubbin spoke on the City Creek Fire shed and City Creek Watershed issues, and requested that more action be taken to be proactive against the risk of fires after a dry winter.

L. CONSENT:

1. Ordinance: Alley Closure at Approximately 9 North Chicago St. (Madsen Park)

The Council will set the date of Tuesday, July 1, 2025 at 7 p.m. to accept public comment and consider adopting an ordinance that would indefinitely close a portion of City-owned alley located at approximately 9 North Chicago Street (Madsen Park) running north/south mid-block between 1000 West and Chicago Street. The proposed alley closure is needed to consolidate all parcels that make up Madsen Park into one parcel to facilitate park improvements that are being funded by the Parks, Trails, & Open Space General Obligation Bond (GO Bond). This portion of the alley doesn't provide access to nearby residents to their properties or to the park. Located within Council District 2.
