B. LBA UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

1. Resolution: Tentative Budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building Authority for Fiscal Year 2025-26

The Board will consider approving a resolution adopting the tentative budget for the Capital Projects Fund of the Local Building Authority of Salt Lake City, Utah for Fiscal Year 2025-26.

The LBA's Capital Projects Fund for Fiscal Year 2025-26 only includes the bond debt services for the Glendale and Marmalade Libraries. (Other Capital projects throughout the City are included in the Mayor's Recommended Budget; see the Capital Improvement Program Budget Book.) The LBA is a financing tool for cities and government entities, like libraries, to bond for capital projects at better interest rates. Capital projects are big construction projects like parks, public buildings, and street projects.

G. PUBLIC HEARINGS:

1. Ordinance: Mixed-Use (MU) Zoning Consolidation Zoning Text and Map Amendment

The Council will accept public comment and consider adopting an ordinance that would amend the City's zoning ordinance and zoning map by consolidating up to 27 existing commercial, form-based, and mixed-use zoning districts into six new mixed-use (MU) districts. The proposal aims to simplify zoning regulations, improve clarity of language, and incorporate missing design standards. The new mixed-use districts will be similar to the current districts but will have changes to setbacks, building height, lot coverage, and permitted land uses. Other sections of Title 21A may also be amended as part of this petition. Petition No.: PLNPCM2024-00707.

MINUTES OF THE SALT LAKE CITY COUNCIL, LOCAL BUILDING AUTHORITY, AND COMMUNITY REINVESTMENT AGENCY
Tuesday, May 6, 2025

Summary:

Nick Tarbet provided a brief introduction to the ordinance.

Public Comment:

Noah Shephardson expressed concern regarding the proposed amendment, as their building on 375 West Hope Avenue (Madbrook Donut) would become a non-complying structure, and asked for alternative consideration of the MU-3 zone for the area.

Scott Amundsen expressed concern regarding excessive building height and smaller setbacks from homes with the proposed changes.

Joe Gallegos expressed concern regarding a hole left after their neighbor's house was demolished and noted it needed proper fencing as it attracted camping and trespassing.

Amy Stocks spoke to impacts of the proposed changes, including potential excessive building heights and smaller setbacks.

Paul Cryer spoke to impacts of the proposed changes including, potential excessive building heights and a desire to preserve existing greenspace within his neighborhood.

Alex Hamory spoke in opposition to the proposed setback changes for their home/neighborhood and urged the inclusion of the National Park Service document: "Protecting a Historic Structure During Adjacent Construction" as an addendum to the zoning merge to protect against unnecessary damage and/or costly litigation.

Annie Isaacson spoke to concerns regarding the potential for no rear/side yard setbacks with the proposed changes.

Larry Hancock spoke to the negative impacts of a potential residential development near his home, including the obstruction of view and lack of parking provided.

Richard Piggott, representing Maverik Inc., spoke to the proposed changes as negatively affecting the ability to provide new services and locations for current customers as well as the ability to operate and maintain existing convenience store locations.

Cindy Cromer asked the Council to not adopt the proposal, noted additional written comments would be provided, and spoke in opposition to the requirement that existing city buildings be on the city register in order to receive tax credits.

Tim Frederiksen, representing Olympia Sales & Manufacturing, expressed the importance of not losing the ability to manufacture and said the proposed changes would impact his long-time business.

Clay Smith expressed opposition to the proposed overlay district because of impacts to their business and existing property.

COMMUNITY REINVESTMENT AGENCY

Tuesday, May 6, 2025

Jennifer Goodrum expressed concerns about the proposed changes potentially causing an uptick in parking, traffic, and residents in an already small neighborhood.

Cameron Broadbent asked the Council to consider a grace period for property owners who either have zoning changes approved in the last few years or were currently working with the City to develop under existing ordinances, allowing submittal of plans through the end of 2025 under the current zoning.

Judi Short spoke in opposition to the potential for excessive building height allowances in the Sugar House Business District.

Ben Engel expressed optimism regarding the proposed changes noting it would discourage blight, simplify processes, encourage reasonable parking, and hold property owners responsible for maintaining vacant properties.

Jeff McComas expressed concerns regarding the proposed changes adversely affecting established businesses in industrial areas of the city.

Lynn Schwarz spoke in opposition to the potential for excessive building height allowances in the Sugar House Business District.

Jacqueline Anderson expressed concerns regarding the potential for excessive building heights and minimal setbacks within the Avenues area of the City.

Brian Heslop expressed concern regarding the proposed changes and potential of residential areas being allowed in industrial/commercial areas, due to safety and wellbeing of both residents and employees of abutting businesses.

Soren Simonsen spoke to areas surrounding the Jordan River that were highlighted for transition, asked the Council to examine preservation and expansion of buffers beyond the 100 foot minimum within the current riparian overlay, and advocated for the development of Urban Design Division to help implement the proposed zoning.

Matt Sadauckas spoke in favor of the Council adopting the proposed changes as it would enable a greater variety of housing options, potential to improve both parking and transit, and slow the growth of homelessness.

Dan Mullen was called to speak but did not have comments for this item.

Council Remarks:

Council Member Young thanked the public for speaking on the topic and said continuing the item for public comment provided the opportunity to address public feedback.

Council Member Puy thanked the public for their feedback, acknowledged their issues, and described looking forward to providing more time to discuss.

2. Ordinance: Alley Vacation Near 2680 South Chadwick

The Council will accept public comment and consider adopting an ordinance that would vacate a City-owned alley between approximately 2615 South and 2700 South, and between Beverly Street and Chadwick Streets. If approved, the alley would be divided and given to the property owners that abut the alley. The applicant has requested the vacation due to various structures and vegetation in the alley, as well as an overall lack of use. The request is supported by the Sugar House Master Plan. Located within Council District 7. Petitioner: Taylor Thomas, owner of 2680 South Chadwick. Petition No.: PLNPCM2024-00973.
