5. Public Comment

Chair Bedore opened the public comment period at 7:22 pm.

Comments:

Ryan Wilkinson, an Ogden resident, commented on a past stalking injunction involving Council Member Jacob and stated his intention to continue informing residents about the matter.

Chair Bedore closed the public comment period at 7:26 pm.

Council Member Jacob asked for a moment of personal privilege and said he had debated whether to say something for a long time. He stated no injunction had been filed against him as Council Member Zach Jacob. Council Member Jacob said the event to which Mr. Wilkinson alluded occurred in 2006, when someone was bugging an ex of his, and she had assumed it was him. It had not been him. Council Member Jacob said Mr. Wilkinson and he had disagreed about the Regional Airport, and he had not answered questions the way Mr. Wilkinson thought he should have, so Mr. Wilkinson had tried to publicly embarrass him into resigning since then. Council Member Jacob added that he had gone to court and had the injunction expunged from his record.

6. Public Hearings

a. Resolution No. 26-015 Requesting a Fee Waiver in the Amount of $225 for the Dixie Valley Neighborhood Cleanup Days

Council Office Director Alan Anderson presented a request for fee waiver for Dixie Valley Neighborhood Cleanup Days for three dumpsters ($225). Betty King, representing the Dixie Valley Neighborhood Watch, said the neighborhood held a cleanup day each Spring, and said residents had appreciated the opportunity.

Council Member Lamb expressed support for the neighborhood cleanup and the requested fee waiver. Responding to a question from Council Member Shelton, Mr. Anderson explained the three dumpsters would each apply to a different address for the first rental fee of $75 each. Additional dumpster rentals for the three addresses in 2026 would be at the higher rate. Chair Bedore expressed support.
