1. Notice is hereby given that the State of Utah is seeking to forfeit the above-named seized property consisting of FOUR THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED FIFTY DOLLARS

($4750.00), which was seized on or about June 1st, 2026, at Cleva Technologies in Summit County, by Park City Police Department.

2. Notice is further given pursuant to Utah Code Section 77-11b-302 that an in rem civil Complaint for Forfeiture, a true and correct copy of which is attached and herewith served upon you, has been filed with the Clerk of Court. As a person who may claim to be an owner or interest holder, you may file an answer to the complaint without posting bond with respect to the seized property.

3. Notice is further given pursuant to Utah Code Section 77-11b-302(3) that an answer to the Complaint for Forfeiture must be filed within thirty (30) days from the date of service of this summons and complaint upon you with the Clerk of Court at 450 S. State Street, PO Box 1860, Salt Lake City, Utah 84114. For email instructions, please visit the court's website: <https://www.utcourts.gov/en/legal-help/legal-help/procedures/filing/email.html>. You must also mail or deliver a copy to the Plaintiff's attorney, Fred Burmester, Deputy District Attorney, at Summit County District Attorney's Office, 6300 Justice Center Road, Park City, Utah 84098.

4. Notice is further given pursuant to Utah Code Section 77-11a-302, that you may be able to obtain release of the seized property by posting a surety bond or cash bond for the current fair market value of the property. Further, under Utah Code Section 77-11a-303, you may also file a motion for a hardship release of the property. You should seek qualified legal advice regarding whether you may qualify to recover possession of the seized property.

5. If you fail to file an answer or claim regarding the seized property, a default judgment may be granted against the seized property, and you will forfeit any right, title or interest which you may claim to have in the seized property.

Dated this 14th day of July 2026

Bilingual Notice to Responding Party:

A lawsuit has been filed against you. You must respond in writing by the deadline for the court to consider your side. The written response is called an Answer.

Deadline!

Your Answer must be filed with the court and served on the other party within 30 days of the date you were served with this Summons.

If you do not file and serve your Answer by the deadline, the other party can ask the court for a default judgment. A default judgment means the other party can get what they asked for, and you do not get the chance to tell your side of the story.

Read the complaint/petition

The Complaint or Petition has been filed with the court and explains what the other party is asking for in their lawsuit. Read it carefully.
