If you wish to join us virtually, please review these virtual participation key points.

- You will be muted upon entry.
- Each participant wishing to make a public comment will need to log-in individually.
- One comment per participant is allowed and you will need to state your name at the beginning of your comment.
- Public comments are limited to 3 minutes per participant.

For oral comments through video, audio, or both:

- Raise your hand via the meeting tools if you wish to give verbal testimony during the public hearing.
- When it is your turn, the meeting host will unmute you and your 3 minutes will start once you state your name for the public record.

For written comments that are to be read in the meeting for public records:

- Can be submitted before and during the hearing by emailing admin@royutah.gov
- Or type your written comment into the Q&A section via Zoom to be read into the record.
- Please note that only one comment per participant will be read into the record for up to 3 minutes.

Please note, as an individual participant, you are allotted one 3-minute comment period. If you intend to make public comment, you must choose either in-person, virtually via zoom, or by written comment via zoom.

The Roy City Council Meeting Rules of Procedure and Order state residents have a right to be heard. Accordingly, the City Council expects any person presenting to the council to speak in a civil manner, with due respect for the decorum of the meeting, and with due respect for all people attending.
