

KEARNS CITY COUNCIL

ORDINANCE NO. 2026-O-11

DATE: July 13, 2026

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING AND REENACTING TITLE 12 OF THE KEARNS MUNICIPAL CODE

WHEREAS, on December 7, 2023 Kearns repealed and replaced Title 12 of the Kearns Municipal Code.

WHEREAS, Kearns has adopted regulations codified in Title 12 of the Kearns Municipal Code to protect the public health, safety, and welfare through the enforcement of land use, nuisance, property maintenance, and related municipal standards; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes that voluntary compliance with municipal code requirements is generally the most efficient, cost-effective, and cooperative means of achieving compliance and preserving community standards; and

WHEREAS, the City desires to establish a formal procedure for providing courtesy notices to property owners, occupants, and other responsible parties prior to the initiation of formal enforcement proceedings when appropriate, in order to encourage voluntary correction of code violations; and

WHEREAS, the City finds that the use of courtesy notices may improve communication with residents, provide greater transparency regarding alleged violations, reduce unnecessary enforcement costs, and foster cooperative resolution of code compliance issues; and

WHEREAS, the City further finds that certain amendments to Title 12 are necessary to clarify enforcement procedures, improve administrative efficiency, strengthen compliance mechanisms, and provide code enforcement personnel with clear authority and guidance in carrying out their duties; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that updating Title 12 of the Kearns Municipal Code as set forth herein will promote a more effective, consistent, and equitable code compliance structure while preserving the Township's authority to take immediate enforcement action when necessary to protect public health, safety, or welfare; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that adoption of this Ordinance is in the best interests of the residents of Kearns and will further the public health, safety, and welfare.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED by the Kearns City Council:

1. Enactment: Title 12 of the Kearns Municipal Code is repealed in its entirety and reenacted to read as attached to this ordinance.

2. Severability: If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any part of this ordinance is unconstitutional or invalid, then such portion of this ordinance, or specific application of this ordinance, shall be severed from the remainder, which shall continue in full force and effect.

2. Direction to Mayor and Staff: The Mayor and staff are authorized and directed to take such steps as may be needed: (a) for this ordinance to become effective under Utah law, including but not limited to compliance with the requirements of Utah Code § 10-3-711; and (b) to finalize and post the ordinance to Municode, including but not limited to making non-substantive edits to correct any scrivener's, formatting, and numbering errors.

3. Effective Date: This ordinance shall become effective immediately upon its posting.

12.02.030 Declaration Of Purpose

Kearns finds compliance with its Code and applicable state codes throughout the municipality to be an important public service. Community education of Code requirements, Code compliance, and abatement are vital to the protection of the public's health, safety, and quality of life. The Council recognizes that comprehensive code compliance starts with the drafting of precise regulations that can be effectively applied in administrative code compliance hearings and judicial proceedings that use a combination of judicial and administrative remedies to achieve fair and equitable compliance, and which address the failure to comply through judicial action.

12.02.060 Criminal Prosecution Right

Kearns has sole discretion in deciding whether to file a civil or criminal case or both for the violation of any of its ordinances. The enactment of the administrative remedies in this Title shall not interfere with Kearns's right to prosecute ordinance violations as criminal offenses in a court of law. Kearns may use any of the remedies available under the law in both civil and criminal prosecution. If Kearns decides to file both civil and criminal charges for the same day of violation, no civil penalties may be assessed, but all other remedies will be available. Kearns may at its discretion proceed with a civil compliance action under this Title in district court without first holding an administrative hearing or exhausting other administrative remedies.

12.02.340 Administrative Search Warrant Procedure

1. The Director or any designated compliance official may apply for an administrative search warrant with the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of probable cause to believe that a violation of the Kearns Code or an applicable state code has occurred, is occurring, or is about to occur. The showing of probable cause shall be based on specific and articulable facts or circumstances and shall be supported by a sworn affidavit or a verified complaint.

2. A search warrant shall be issued by the Administrative Law Judge upon a finding of probable cause to believe that a violation of the Kearns Code or an applicable state code has occurred, and that a search of private property is necessary to investigate and enforce such ordinance.
3. A search warrant shall specify the property to be searched and, if applicable, the items to be seized.
4. The search warrant shall be executed by a designated compliance official in accordance with the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Utah law.
5. The search warrant shall be executed in a reasonable manner, taking into account the nature of the ordinance being enforced, the nature of the property being searched, and the presence of any individual(s) on the property.
6. A report of the execution of the search warrant shall be made in writing and filed with the Administrative Law Judge that issued the warrant. The report shall include a description of the property searched, the items seized, and any other information required by law or court order.
7. No person shall refuse entry or access to any authorized representative of the department who requests entry for purposes of inspection, and who presents appropriate credentials and warrant, nor shall any person obstruct, hamper or interfere with any such inspection.
8. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent prompt inspection without consent or appropriate warrant in emergency situations.

12.04.020 Courtesy Notice

1. If the Director or any designated compliance official determines that a violation has occurred, the Director or compliance official may issue a courtesy notice to a responsible person by leaving a courtesy notice with the responsible person or affixing the notice to the door or gate of the property. The courtesy notice shall include the following information:
  1. Name of the property owner of record according to the records of the County Recorder;
  2. Street address of violation;
  3. Nature and results of the examination and investigation conducted;
  4. Date and approximate time the violation was observed
  5. All code sections violated and descriptions of the condition of the property that violates the applicable codes;
  6. A statement explaining the type of remedial action required to permanently correct outstanding violations, which may include corrections, repairs, demolition, removal, eradication, destruction, or other appropriate action;
  7. A statement that if the violation has not been remedied within 7 days, the designated compliance official will issue a notice of violation consistent with the requirements of this chapter.
  8. The name and contact information of the code compliance official who may be contacted regarding the courtesy notice.
2. The issuance of a courtesy notice is discretionary, and an compliance official may proceed with the issuance of a notice of violation without first issuing a courtesy notice. In issuing a courtesy notice, compliance officers shall take into consideration the duration, extent, and severity of the violation, formal and informal complaints by neighboring property owners, public health and safety, and any other factors relevant to code compliance in Kearns.

12.04.030 Notice Of Violation

1. If the Director or any designated compliance official determines that a violation of the Kearns Code or applicable state codes has occurred or continues to exist, the Director or compliance official may issue a notice of violation to a responsible person. The notice of violation shall include the following information and shall comply with Utah Code § 10-11-2 or the applicable successor statute(s):
  1. Name of the property owner of record according to the records of the County Recorder;
  2. Street address of violation;
  3. Nature and results of the examination and investigation conducted;
  4. Date and approximate time the violation was observed;
  5. All code sections violated and descriptions of the condition of the property that violates the applicable codes;
  6. A statement explaining the type of remedial action required to permanently correct outstanding violations, which may include corrections, repairs, demolition, removal, eradication, destruction, or other appropriate action;
  7. A specific date for the responsible party to correct the violations listed in the notice of violation or appeal the notice of violation, which date shall be at least fifteen days from the date of service unless the Director determines that the violation requires emergency abatement under Section 12.2.200;
  8. Explanation of the consequences if the responsible person fails to comply with the terms and deadlines as prescribed in the notice of violation, which may include criminal prosecution; civil penalties; revocation of permits; recordation of the notice of violation; withholding of future municipal permits; abatement of the violation by Kearns and re-payment to Kearns for the costs of the abatement; other costs incurred by Kearns; administrative fees; and any other legal remedies;
  9. Civil penalties shall begin to accrue immediately on expiration of the date to correct violations;
  10. The amount of the civil penalty on each violation and that the penalty shall accrue daily until the property is brought into compliance;
  11. Only one notice of violation is required for any 12-month period, and civil penalties begin immediately upon any subsequent violation of the notice. The responsible person may request a hearing on the renewed violation by following the same procedure as provided for the original notice;
  12. Procedures to appeal the notice and request a hearing, including the amount of the appeal fee, as provided in the adopted fee schedule and consequences for failure to request one, including that failure to appeal waives all defenses to the notice of violation and the Director, or designee, may order the abatement of the property without a subsequent hearing or order; and

13. Procedures to request an inspection after the violation has been abated.
2. The notice of violation shall be served by one of the methods of service listed in Section 12.2.210 of this Title.
3. More than one notice of violation may be issued against the same responsible person if it encompasses different dates, or different violations.

HISTORY

Repealed & Replaced by Ord. 2023-12-02 on 12/7/2023

12.042.410 Declaration Of Purpose

The Council finds that there is a need for an alternative method of compliance for violations of the Metro Township Kearns Code and applicable state codes which do not relate to land use violations. The Council further finds that an appropriate method of compliance is an administrative citation program.

The procedures established in this Part shall be in addition to criminal, civil, or any other legal remedy established by law that may be pursued to address violations of the Metro Township Kearns Code or applicable state codes.

HISTORY

Repealed & Replaced by Ord. 2023-12-02 on 12/7/2023

12.042.420 Authority

Any person violating a provision of the Metro Township Kearns Code or applicable state codes may be issued an administrative citation by a compliance official as provided in this Part.

A civil penalty shall be assessed by means of an administrative citation issued by the compliance official and shall be payable directly to the Metro Township Kearns Treasurer's Office, or other offices designated to receive payment on behalf of the Metro Township Kearns.

Penalties assessed by means of an administrative citation shall be collected in accordance with the procedures specified in the remedies section of this Title.

HISTORY

Repealed & Replaced by Ord. 2023-12-02 on 12/7/2023

12.042.430 Procedures

1. Upon discovering any violation of the Metro Township Kearns Code, or applicable state codes, a compliance official may issue an administrative citation to a responsible person in the manner prescribed in this Part or as prescribed in Section 12.1.210. The administrative citation shall be issued on a form approved by the Director.
2. If the responsible person is a business, the compliance official shall attempt to locate the business owner and issue an administrative citation to the business owner. If the compliance official can only locate the manager of the business, the administrative citation may be given to the manager of the business. A copy of the administrative citation may also be mailed to the business owner or any other responsible person in the manner prescribed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.

3. Once the responsible person has been located, the compliance official shall attempt to obtain the signature of that person on the administrative citation. If the responsible person refuses or fails to sign the administrative citation, the failure or refusal to sign shall not affect the validity of the citation and subsequent proceedings.
4. If the compliance official is unable to locate the responsible person for the violation, then the administrative citation shall be mailed to the responsible person in the manner prescribed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
5. If no one can be located at the property, then the administrative citation may be posted in a conspicuous place on or near the property and a copy subsequently mailed to the responsible person in the manner prescribed by Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
6. The administrative citation shall also contain the signature of the compliance official.
7. The failure of any person with an interest in the property to receive notice shall not affect the validity of any proceedings taken under this Part.

HISTORY

Repealed & Replaced by Ord. 2023-12-02 on 12/7/2023

12.04.510 Declaration Of Purpose

The Council finds that there is a need to establish uniform procedures for administrative code compliance hearings conducted pursuant to Kearns Code. It is the purpose and intent of the Council to afford due process of law to any person who is directly affected by an administrative action. Due process of law includes notice, an opportunity to participate in the administrative hearing, and an explanation of the reasons justifying the administrative action. These procedures are also intended to establish a forum to efficiently, expeditiously, and fairly resolve issues raised in any administrative code compliance action.

12.04.530 Appeal And Request For Administrative Code Compliance Hearing

1. A person served with one of the following documents or notices has the right to appeal by requesting an administrative code compliance hearing, if the request is filed within 15 calendar days from the date of service of one of the following notices:
  1. Notice of violation;
  2. Notice of itemized bill for costs; or
  3. Notice of emergency abatement;
2. A person served with a notice of hazardous material abatement shall have the right to appeal by requesting an administrative code compliance hearing, if the request is filed within 180 calendar days from the date of service.
3. The request for hearing shall be made in writing and filed with the Director or as otherwise indicated in the notice of violation. The request shall contain the following:
  1. the case number,
  2. the address of the violation,
  3. a statement of the legal and factual basis supporting the overturning the notice of violation; and

4. the signature of the responsible party.
4. The request for hearing shall be accompanied by payment of the appeal fee the amount of which shall be provided forth in the Kearns Fee Schedule.
5. Failure to provide all the information required in Subsection 12.02.530(2) and payment of the appeal fee required in Subsection 12.02.530 (3), may result in the dismissal of the appeal without a hearing.
6. As soon as practicable after receiving the written notice of the request for hearing, the Director shall schedule a date, time, and place for the hearing with the Administrative Law Judge and serve a Notice of Hearing on the responsible party.
7. Failure to request a hearing as provided shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing and a waiver of the right to appeal the action.

12.04.540 Hearings And Orders

1. If the responsible person fails to request a hearing before the expiration of the 15-calendar day required deadline, the Director may:
  1. Schedule the abatement of the property and serve a notice of abatement on the responsible party.
  2. Request a default hearing, with the Administrative Law Judge and notify the responsible person of the date, time, and place of the hearing by one of the methods listed in Section 12.2.210.
2. A default hearing may be scheduled for all cases that have outstanding or unpaid civil penalties, fines, fees and/or costs due to Kearns before collection.
3. At any hearing, the responsible person shall have the opportunity to present evidence to show that good cause exists, as defined in the Title, to do one or more of the following in addition to any other rights afforded under other provisions of Kearns Code or applicable law:
  1. Waive or reduce the fines which have accumulated;
  2. Postpone an abatement action by Kearns; or
  3. Excuse the responsible person's failure to request a hearing within the 15-day period.
4. If the responsible person fails to establish good cause to take one or more of the actions set forth in paragraph (3), the Administrative Law Judge shall review the notice of violation and any other relevant information included in the case file. The Administrative Law Judge shall not accept any other evidence.
  1. If the evidence shows that the violations existed, the Administrative Law Judge shall enter an order requiring abatement of the violations, and the payment of all fines and fees. Fines shall run until the Director or other duly authorized representative of Kearns issues a Notice of Compliance stating when the violations were actually abated.

12.04.560 Disqualification Of Administrative Law Judge

1. A responsible person may file a written motion to disqualify an Administrative Law Judge for bias, prejudice, a conflict of interest, or any other reason for which a judge may be disqualified in a court of law. The motion to disqualify shall be accompanied by an affidavit or unsworn declaration as described in Title 78B of the Utah Code or applicable successor statute signed by the responsible person, which shall:
  1. State that the motion is filed in good faith;
  2. Allege facts sufficient to show bias, prejudice, a conflict of interest, or any other reason that would disqualify a judge in a court of law in Utah; and
  3. State when and how the Responsible Party came to know of the reason for disqualification.
2. The responsible person shall file the motion within 21 days of the assignment of the action to an Administrative Law Judge or the date on which the responsible person knew or should have known of the grounds on which the motion is based, whichever is later.
3. A responsible person may only file one motion to disqualify an Administrative Law Judge, unless a second or subsequent motion is based on grounds that the responsible person did not know of and could not have known of at the time of the earlier motion.
4. The Administrative Law Judge who is the subject of a motion to disqualify must, without taking any further action, provide the Director with a copy of the motion and refer the motion to the Kearns Council.
5. Upon receipt of a motion to disqualify, the Kearns Council will schedule and notice the matter for review at its next regular scheduled meeting. The Kearns Council may, in its sole discretion, elect to hold a special meeting to hear the motion before its next regularly scheduled meeting. The Kearns Council shall first review the motion to disqualify to determine if it satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section. If the motion to disqualify does not satisfy the requirements of this Section, the Council will deny the motion and remand it to the Administrative Law Judge for further proceedings. If the motion to disqualify satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section, the Kearns Council shall determine whether the motion is legally sufficient to warrant disqualification. If the Kearns Council determines that disqualification is warranted, it will assign the matter to another Administrative Law Judge. If the Kearns Council determines that the motion to disqualify is not legally sufficient, it will remand the matter back to the Administrative Law Judge.

12.04.570 Powers Of The Administrative Law Judge

1. The Administrative Law Judge has the authority to conduct an adjudicative proceeding, determine if any violation of Kearns Code exists, order compliance with Kearns Code, and enforce compliance as provided in this Title on any matter subject to the provisions of the Title.
2. The Administrative Law Judge may complete the attendance of a witness and production of a document or other evidence, administer an oath, take testimony, and receive evidence as necessary.
3. The Administrative Law Judge may continue a hearing based on good cause shown by one of the parties to the hearing. The Administrative Law Judge must enter on the record the good cause on which a continuance is granted.
4. The Administrative Law Judge, at the request of any party to the hearing, may sign subpoenas for witnesses, documents, and other evidence. All costs related to the subpoena, including witness and mileage fees, shall be borne by the party requesting the subpoena. The Administrative Law Judge shall develop policies and procedures relating to the issuance of subpoenas in administrative code compliance hearings, including the form of the subpoena and related costs.
5. The Administrative Law Judge has continuing jurisdiction over the subject matter of an administrative code compliance hearing for the purposes of granting a continuance; ordering compliance by issuing an administrative code compliance order using any remedies available under the law; ensuring compliance with that order, which includes the right to authorize Kearns to enter and abate a violation; modifying an administrative code compliance order; or, where extraordinary circumstances exist, granting a new hearing.
6. The Administrative Law Judge has the authority to require a responsible person to post a code compliance performance bond to ensure compliance with an administrative code compliance order.

12.04.580 Procedures At Administrative Code Compliance Hearing

1. Administrative code compliance hearings are intended to be informal. Formal rules of evidence and discovery do not apply; however, an informal exchange of discovery may be required. The request shall be in writing. Failure to request discovery may not be a basis for a continuance. Complainant information is protected and shall not be released unless the complainant is a witness at the hearing. The procedure and format of the administrative hearing shall follow the procedures promulgated by the Administrative Law Judge.

2. Kearns bears the burden of proof at an administrative code compliance hearing to establish the existence of a violation of Kearns or applicable state codes.
3. The standard of proof to be used by the Administrative Law Judge in deciding the issues at an administrative hearing is whether the preponderance of the evidence shows that the violations exist.
4. Each party shall have the opportunity to cross-examine witnesses and present evidence in support of his or her case. A written declaration signed under penalty of perjury may be accepted in lieu of a personal appearance. Testimony may be given by telephone or other electronic means. The Administrative Law Judge may accept testimony offered by proffer.
5. All hearings are open to the public, but public notice is not required. All hearings shall be recorded. The recording may be audio or video. Hearings may be held at the location of the violation.
6. The responsible person has a right to be represented by an attorney. If an attorney is representing the responsible person at the hearing, notice of the attorney's name, address, and telephone number shall be provided to Kearns at least one day prior to the hearing. If notice is not given, the hearing may be continued at Kearns's request, and all costs of the continuance assessed to the responsible person.
7. No new hearing shall be granted, unless the Administrative Law Judge determines that extraordinary circumstances exist which justify a new hearing.

12.04.591 Administrative Code Compliance Order

1. Once all evidence and testimony are completed, the Administrative Law Judge shall issue, or cause the prevailing party to circulate, an administrative code compliance order that affirms, modifies, or rejects the notice or citation. The Administrative Law Judge may increase or decrease the total amount of civil penalties and costs that are due pursuant to Kearns's fee schedule and the procedures in this Title.

2. The parties may enter into a stipulated agreement, which must be signed by both parties. This agreement shall be entered as a stipulated administrative code compliance order. Entry of this agreement shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing and the right to appeal.
3. The Administrative Law Judge may order Kearns to enter the property and abate all violations, including demolitions and the removal of vehicles, garbage, animals, and other property kept in violation of Kearns Code.
4. The Administrative Law Judge may revoke a kennel permit, an animal license, or the right to possess animals as provided in Kearns Code.
5. As part of the administrative code compliance order, the Administrative Law Judge may condition the total or partial assessment of civil penalties on the responsible person's ability to complete compliance by specified deadlines.
6. The Administrative Law Judge may schedule subsequent review hearings as may be necessary or as requested by a party to the hearing to ensure compliance with the administrative code compliance order.
7. The Administrative Law Judge may order the responsible person to post a performance bond to ensure compliance with the order.
8. The administrative code compliance order shall become final on the date of the signing of the order.
9. The administrative code compliance order shall be served on all parties by any one of the methods listed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.

12.04.610 Appeal Of Administrative Code Compliance Hearing Decision

1. Any person adversely affected by any administrative decision made pursuant to this Chapter may file a petition for review of the decision or order by the district court within 30 days after the decision is rendered.
2. No person may challenge in district court an administrative code compliance hearing officer's decision until that person has exhausted his or her administrative remedies.

3. Within 120 days after submitting the petition, the party petitioning for appeal shall request a copy of the record of the proceedings, including transcripts of hearings when necessary. The Administrative Law Judge shall not submit copies of files or transcripts to the reviewing court until the party petitioning for appeal has paid all required costs, including the cost of a licensed court reporter transcribing all relevant recorded hearings. The petitioning party's failure to properly arrange for copies of the record, or to pay the full costs for the record, within 180 days after the petition for review was filed shall be grounds for dismissal of the petition.
  1. If a transcript of a hearing cannot be prepared because the tape recording is incomplete or unintelligible, the district court may remand the matter to the Administrative Law Judge for a supplemental proceeding to complete the record. The district court may limit the scope of the supplemental proceeding to issues that, in the court's opinion, need to be clarified.
4. The district court's review is limited to the record of the administrative decision that is being appealed. The court shall not accept nor consider any evidence that is not part of the record of that decision.
5. The courts shall:
  1. Presume that the administrative code compliance hearing officer's decision and orders are valid; and
  2. Review the record to determine whether or not the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or illegal.

12.06.160 Notice Of Compliance - Procedures

1. When the violation has been corrected, the responsible person or property owner may request an inspection of the property from the Director.
2. Upon receipt of a request for inspection, the Director shall re-inspect the property as soon as practicable to determine whether the violations listed in the notice of violation or the order have been corrected, and whether all necessary permits have been issued and final inspections have been performed.
3. The Director shall serve a notice of satisfaction to the responsible person or property owner as provided in Section 12.2.210 of this Title, if the Director determines that the violation listed in the recorded notice of violation or order has been corrected;
4. All necessary permits have been issued and finalized;
5. All civil penalties assessed against the property have been paid or satisfied; and
6. The party requesting the notice of satisfaction has paid all administrative fees and costs.
7. If the Director denies a request to issue a notice of satisfaction, upon request, the Director shall serve the responsible person with a written explanation setting forth the reasons for the denial. 12.08.110 Declaration Of Purpose

The Council finds that recordation of code compliance tax liens will assist in the collection of civil penalties, administrative costs, actual costs, and administrative fees assessed by the administrative code compliance hearing program or judicial orders. The Council further finds that collection of civil penalties, costs, and fees assessed for code compliance violations is important in deterring future violations and maintaining the integrity of Kearns's code compliance system. The procedures established in this Part shall be used to complement existing administrative or judicial remedies that may be pursued to address violations of Kearns Code or applicable state codes.

12.08.120 Procedures For Tax Liens Without A Judgement

1. Once Kearns has abated a property, the Director shall prepare an Itemized Statement of Costs incurred in the removal and destruction of the violations and deliver them to the Director after completion of the work of removing the violations.
2. The Director shall send, by registered mail to the property owner's last known address, a copy of the Itemized Statement of Costs informing the property owner that a code compliance tax lien is being recorded for the amount of actual costs of abatement. Payment shall be due within 30 calendar days from the date of mailing.
3. Upon receipt of the Itemized Statement of Costs, the Director, shall record a Code Compliance Tax Lien against the property with the County Treasurer's office.
4. The failure of any person with a financial interest in the property to actually receive the notice of the lien shall not affect the validity of the lien or any proceedings taken to collect the outstanding costs of abatement.

12.02.340 Administrative Search Warrant Procedure

1. The Director or any designated enforcementcompliance official may apply for an administrative search warrant with the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of probable cause to believe that a violation of the Kearns Code or an applicable state code has occurred, is occurring, or is about to occur. The showing of probable cause shall be based on specific and articulable facts or circumstances and shall be supported by a sworn affidavit or a verified complaint.
2. A search warrant shall be issued by the Administrative Law Judge upon a finding of probable cause to believe that a violation of the Kearns Code or an applicable state code has occurred, and that a search of private property is necessary to investigate and enforce such ordinance.
3. A search warrant shall specify the property to be searched and, if applicable, the items to be seized.
4. The search warrant shall be executed by a designated enforcementcompliance official in accordance with the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Utah law.
5. The search warrant shall be executed in a reasonable manner, taking into account the nature of the ordinance being enforced, the nature of the property being searched, and the presence of any individual(s) on the property.
6. A report of the execution of the search warrant shall be made in writing and filed with the Administrative Law Judge that issued the warrant. The report shall include a description of the property searched, the items seized, and any other information required by law or court order.
7. No person shall refuse entry or access to any authorized representative of the department who requests entry for purposes of inspection, and who presents appropriate credentials and warrant, nor shall any person obstruct, hamper or interfere with any such inspection.
8. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent prompt inspection without consent or appropriate warrant in emergency situations.

12.04.020 Courtesy Notice

1. If the Director or any designated enforcementcompliance official determines that a ~~minor~~ violation has occurred, the Director or enforcementcompliance official may issue a courtesy notice to a responsible person by leaving a courtesy notice with the responsible person or affixing the notice to the door or gate of the property. The courtesy notice shall include the following information:
  1. Name of the property owner of record according to the records of the County Recorder;
  2. Street address of violation;
  3. Nature and results of the examination and investigation conducted;
  4. Date and approximate time the violation was observed
  5. All code sections violated and descriptions of the condition of the property that violates the applicable codes;

6. A statement explaining the type of remedial action required to permanently correct outstanding violations, which may include corrections, repairs, demolition, removal, eradication, destruction, or other appropriate action;
  7. A statement that if the violation has not been remedied within 7 days, the designated enforcementcompliance official will issue a notice of violation consistent with the requirements of this chapter.
  8. The name and contact information of the code enforcementcompliance official who may be contacted regarding the courtesy notice.
2. The issuance of a courtesy notice is discretionary, and an enforcementcompliance official may proceed with the issuance of a notice of violation without first issuing a courtesy notice. In issuing a courtesy notice, compliance officers shall take into consideration the duration, extent, and severity of the violation, formal and informal complaints by neighboring property owners, public health and safety, and any other factors relevant to code compliance in Kearns.

12.04.030 Notice Of Violation

1. If the Director or any designated enforcementcompliance official determines that a ~~major~~ violation of the Kearns Code or applicable state codes has occurred or continues to exist ~~or a minor violation continues to exist~~, the Director or enforcementcompliance official may issue a notice of violation to a responsible person. The notice of violation shall include the following information and shall comply with Utah Code § 10-11-2 or the applicable successor statute(s):
  1. Name of the property owner of record according to the records of the County Recorder;
  2. Street address of violation;
  3. Nature and results of the examination and investigation conducted;
  4. Date and approximate time the violation was observed;
  5. All code sections violated and descriptions of the condition of the property that violates the applicable codes;
  6. A statement explaining the type of remedial action required to permanently correct outstanding violations, which may include corrections, repairs, demolition, removal, eradication, destruction, or other appropriate action;
  7. A specific date for the responsible party to correct the violations listed in the notice of violation or appeal the notice of violation, which date shall be at least fifteen days from the date of service unless the Director determines that the violation requires emergency abatement under Section 12.2.200;
  8. Explanation of the consequences if the responsible person fails to comply with the terms and deadlines as prescribed in the notice of violation, which may include criminal prosecution; civil penalties; revocation of permits; recordation of the notice of violation; withholding of future municipal permits; abatement of the violation by Kearns and re-payment to Kearns

- for the costs of the abatement; other costs incurred by Kearns;
administrative fees; and any other legal remedies;
9. Civil penalties shall begin to accrue immediately on expiration of the date to correct violations;
  10. The amount of the civil penalty on each violation and that the penalty shall accrue daily until the property is brought into compliance;
  11. Only one notice of violation is required for any 12-month period, and civil penalties begin immediately upon any subsequent violation of the notice. The responsible person may request a hearing on the renewed violation by following the same procedure as provided for the original notice;
  12. Procedures to appeal the notice and request a hearing, including the amount of the appeal fee, as provided in the adopted fee schedule and consequences for failure to request one, including that failure to appeal waives all defenses to the notice of violation and the Director, or designee, may order the abatement of the property without a subsequent hearing or order; and
  13. Procedures to request an inspection after the violation has been abated.
2. The notice of violation shall be served by one of the methods of service listed in Section 12.2.210 of this Title.
  3. More than one notice of violation may be issued against the same responsible person if it encompasses different dates, or different violations.

12.04.220 Procedures For Abatement

1. The Director may abate a violation pursuant to this Part after providing notice under this Title and by following the process set forth in Utah Code § 10-11-3 or any applicable successor statute if the Responsible Party:
  1. Does not abate a violation within the time period prescribed in a notice; and
  2. Did not file a request for an administrative code enforcementcompliance hearing under this Title.
2. The Director may request a default hearing but is not required to do so to abate the violation under this Part and may abate the violation without a default hearing pursuant to Utah Code § 10-11-3 or any applicable successor statute.
3. The Director may use Kearns personnel or a private contractor acting under the Director's or Kearns' direction to abate the violation.
4. Kearns personnel or a private contractor may enter upon private property in a reasonable manner to abate the ordinance violation as specified in the notice of violation or administrative code enforcementcompliance order.
5. If the responsible person abates the violation before Kearns performs the actual abatement pursuant to a notice of violation or administrative code enforcementcompliance order, the Director may still assess the costs incurred by Kearns against the responsible person.
6. In compliance with Utah Code § 10-11-3 or any applicable statute, the Director shall prepare an itemized statement of the work performed when the abatement is completed on the responsible person.
7. The Administrative Law Judge shall hear any appeals filed by a responsible person in response to an itemized statement issued under this Part and shall conduct such appeals and any related hearings in accordance with Utah Code § 10-11-3 or any applicable successor statute.

12.042.430 Procedures

1. Upon discovering any violation of the Metro Township Kearns Code, or applicable state codes, an enforcementcompliance official may issue an administrative citation to a responsible person in the manner prescribed in this Part or as prescribed in Section 12.1.210. The administrative citation shall be issued on a form approved by the Director.
2. If the responsible person is a business, the enforcementcompliance official shall attempt to locate the business owner and issue an administrative citation to the business owner. If the enforcementcompliance official can only locate the manager of the business, the administrative citation may be given to the manager of the business. A copy of the administrative citation may also be mailed to the business owner or any other responsible person in the manner prescribed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
3. Once the responsible person has been located, the enforcementcompliance official shall attempt to obtain the signature of that person on the administrative citation. If the responsible person refuses or fails to sign the administrative citation, the failure or refusal to sign shall not affect the validity of the citation and subsequent proceedings.
4. If the enforcementcompliance official is unable to locate the responsible person for the violation, then the administrative citation shall be mailed to the responsible person in the manner prescribed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
5. If no one can be located at the property, then the administrative citation may be posted in a conspicuous place on or near the property and a copy subsequently mailed to the responsible person in the manner prescribed by Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
6. The administrative citation shall also contain the signature of the enforcementcompliance official.
7. The failure of any person with an interest in the property to receive notice shall not affect the validity of any proceedings taken under this Part.

1. If the responsible person fails to request a hearing before the expiration of the 15-calendar day required deadline, the Director may:
  1. Schedule the abatement of the property and serve a notice of abatement on the responsible party.
  2. Request a default hearing, with the Administrative Law Judge and notify the responsible person of the date, time, and place of the hearing by one of the methods listed in Section 12.2.210.
2. A default hearing may be scheduled for all cases that have outstanding or unpaid civil penalties, fines, fees and/or costs due to Kearns before collection.
3. At any hearing, the responsible person shall have the opportunity to present evidence to show that good cause exists, as defined in the Title, to do one or more of the following in addition to any other rights afforded under other provisions of Kearns Code or applicable law:
  1. Waive or reduce the fines which have accumulated;
  2. Postpone an abatement action by Kearns; or

3. Excuse the responsible person's failure to request a hearing within the 15-day period.
4. If the responsible person fails to establish good cause to take one or more of the actions set forth in paragraph (3), the Administrative Law Judge shall review the notice of violation and any other relevant information included in the case file. The Administrative Law Judge shall not accept any other evidence.
  1. If the evidence shows that the violations existed, the Administrative Law Judge shall enter an order requiring abatement of the violations, and the payment of all fines and fees. Fines shall run until the Director or other duly authorized representative of Kearns issues a Notice of Compliance stating when the violations were actually abated.

12.04.560 Disqualification Of Administrative Law Judge

1. A responsible person may file a written motion to disqualify an Administrative Law Judge for bias, prejudice, a conflict of interest, or any other reason for which a judge may be disqualified in a court of law. The motion to disqualify shall be accompanied by an affidavit or unsworn declaration as described in Title 78B of the Utah Code or applicable successor statute signed by the responsible person, which shall:
  1. State that the motion is filed in good faith;
  2. Allege facts sufficient to show bias, prejudice, a conflict of interest, or any other reason that would disqualify a judge in a court of law in Utah; and
  3. State when and how the Responsible Party came to know of the reason for disqualification.
2. The responsible person shall file the motion within 21 days of the assignment of the action to an Administrative Law Judge or the date on which the responsible person knew or should have known of the grounds on which the motion is based, whichever is later.
3. A responsible person may only file one motion to disqualify an Administrative Law Judge, unless a second or subsequent motion is based on grounds that the responsible person did not know of and could not have known of at the time of the earlier motion.

4. The Administrative Law Judge who is the subject of a motion to disqualify must, without taking any further action, provide the Director with a copy of the motion and refer the motion to the Kearns Council.
5. Upon receipt of a motion to disqualify, the Kearns Council will schedule and notice the matter for review at its next regular scheduled meeting. The Kearns Council may, in its sole discretion, elect to hold a special meeting to hear the motion before its next regularly scheduled meeting. The Kearns Council shall first review the motion to disqualify to determine if it satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section. If the motion to disqualify does not satisfy the requirements of this Section, the Council will deny the motion and remand it to the Administrative Law Judge for further proceedings. If the motion to disqualify satisfies the requirements of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section, the Kearns Council shall determine whether the motion is legally sufficient to warrant disqualification. If the Kearns Council determines that disqualification is warranted, it will assign the matter to another Administrative Law Judge. If the Kearns Council determines that the motion to disqualify is not legally sufficient, it will remand the matter back to the Administrative Law Judge.

12.04.570 Powers Of The Administrative Law Judge

1. The Administrative Law Judge has the authority to conduct an adjudicative proceeding, determine if any violation of Kearns Code exists, order compliance with Kearns Code, and enforce compliance as provided in this Title on any matter subject to the provisions of the Title.
2. The Administrative Law Judge may complete the attendance of a witness and production of a document or other evidence, administer an oath, take testimony, and receive evidence as necessary.
3. The Administrative Law Judge may continue a hearing based on good cause shown by one of the parties to the hearing. The Administrative Law Judge must enter on the record the good cause on which a continuance is granted.
4. The Administrative Law Judge, at the request of any party to the hearing, may sign subpoenas for witnesses, documents, and other evidence. All costs related to the subpoena, including witness and mileage fees, shall be borne by the party requesting the subpoena. The Administrative Law Judge shall develop policies and procedures relating to the issuance of subpoenas in administrative code enforcementcompliance hearings, including the form of the subpoena and related costs.
5. The Administrative Law Judge has continuing jurisdiction over the subject matter of an administrative code enforcementcompliance hearing for the purposes of granting a continuance; ordering compliance by issuing an administrative code enforcementcompliance order using any remedies available under the law; ensuring compliance with that order, which includes the right to authorize Kearns to enter and abate a violation; modifying an administrative code enforcementcompliance order; or, where extraordinary circumstances exist, granting a new hearing.

6. The Administrative Law Judge has the authority to require a responsible person to post a code enforcementcompliance performance bond to ensure compliance with an administrative code enforcementcompliance order.

12.04.580 Procedures At Administrative Code EnforcementCompliance Hearing

1. Administrative code enforcementcompliance hearings are intended to be informal. Formal rules of evidence and discovery do not apply; however, an informal exchange of discovery may be required. The request shall be in writing. Failure to request discovery may not be a basis for a continuance. Complainant information is protected and shall not be released unless the complainant is a witness at the hearing. The procedure and format of the administrative hearing shall follow the procedures promulgated by the Administrative Law Judge.
2. Kearns bears the burden of proof at an administrative code enforcementcompliance hearing to establish the existence of a violation of Kearns or applicable state codes.
3. The standard of proof to be used by the Administrative Law Judge in deciding the issues at an administrative hearing is whether the preponderance of the evidence shows that the violations exist.
4. Each party shall have the opportunity to cross-examine witnesses and present evidence in support of his or her case. A written declaration signed under penalty of perjury may be accepted in lieu of a personal appearance. Testimony may be given by telephone or other electronic means. The Administrative Law Judge may accept testimony offered by proffer.
5. All hearings are open to the public, but public notice is not required. All hearings shall be recorded. The recording may be audio or video. Hearings may be held at the location of the violation.
6. The responsible person has a right to be represented by an attorney. If an attorney is representing the responsible person at the hearing, notice of the attorney's name, address, and telephone number shall be provided to Kearns at least one day prior to the hearing. If notice is not given, the hearing may be continued at Kearns's request, and all costs of the continuance assessed to the responsible person.
7. No new hearing shall be granted, unless the Administrative Law Judge determines that extraordinary circumstances exist which justify a new hearing.

12.04.591 Administrative Code EnforcementCompliance Order

1. Once all evidence and testimony are completed, the Administrative Law Judge shall issue, or cause the prevailing party to circulate, an administrative code enforcementcompliance order that affirms, modifies, or rejects the notice or citation. The Administrative Law Judge may increase or decrease the total amount of civil penalties and costs that are due pursuant to Kearns's fee schedule and the procedures in this Title.
2. The parties may enter into a stipulated agreement, which must be signed by both parties. This agreement shall be entered as a stipulated administrative code enforcementcompliance order. Entry of this agreement shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing and the right to appeal.
3. The Administrative Law Judge may order Kearns to enter the property and abate all violations, including demolitions and the removal of vehicles, garbage, animals, and other property kept in violation of Kearns Code.
4. The Administrative Law Judge may revoke a kennel permit, an animal license, or the right to possess animals as provided in Kearns Code.
5. As part of the administrative code enforcementcompliance order, the Administrative Law Judge may condition the total or partial assessment of civil penalties on the responsible person's ability to complete compliance by specified deadlines.
6. The Administrative Law Judge may schedule subsequent review hearings as may be necessary or as requested by a party to the hearing to ensure compliance with the administrative code enforcementcompliance order.
7. The Administrative Law Judge may order the responsible person to post a performance bond to ensure compliance with the order.
8. The administrative code enforcementcompliance order shall become final on the date of the signing of the order.
9. The administrative code enforcementcompliance order shall be served on all parties by any one of the methods listed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.

12.04.610 Appeal Of Administrative Code Enforcement Compliance Hearing Decision

1. Any person adversely affected by any administrative decision made pursuant to this Chapter may file a petition for review of the decision or order by the district court within 30 days after the decision is rendered.
2. No person may challenge in district court an administrative code enforcement compliance hearing officer's decision until that person has exhausted his or her administrative remedies.
3. Within 120 days after submitting the petition, the party petitioning for appeal shall request a copy of the record of the proceedings, including transcripts of hearings when necessary. The Administrative Law Judge shall not submit copies of files or transcripts to the reviewing court until the party petitioning for appeal has paid all required costs, including the cost of a licensed court reporter transcribing all relevant recorded hearings. The petitioning party's failure to properly arrange for copies of the record, or to pay the full costs for the record, within 180 days after the petition for review was filed shall be grounds for dismissal of the petition.
  1. If a transcript of a hearing cannot be prepared because the tape recording is incomplete or unintelligible, the district court may remand the matter to the Administrative Law Judge for a supplemental proceeding to complete the record. The district court may limit the scope of the supplemental proceeding to issues that, in the court's opinion, need to be clarified.
4. The district court's review is limited to the record of the administrative decision that is being appealed. The court shall not accept nor consider any evidence that is not part of the record of that decision.
5. The courts shall:
  1. Presume that the administrative code enforcement compliance hearing officer's decision and orders are valid; and
  2. Review the record to determine whether or not the decision was arbitrary, capricious, or illegal.

12.04.730 Procedures

1. Upon discovering a violation of the Kearns Code, or applicable state codes, an enforcementcompliance official may issue an administrative citation to a responsible person in the manner prescribed in this Part or as prescribed in Section 12.1.210. The administrative citation shall be issued on a form approved by the Director.
2. If the responsible person is a business, the enforcementcompliance official shall attempt to locate the business owner and issue an administrative citation to the business owner. If the enforcementcompliance official can only locate the manager of the business, the administrative citation may be given to the manager of the business. A copy of the administrative citation may also be mailed to the business owner or any other responsible person in the manner prescribed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
3. Once the responsible person has been located, the enforcementcompliance official shall attempt to obtain the signature of that person on the administrative citation. If the responsible person refuses or fails to sign the administrative citation, the failure or refusal to sign shall not affect the validity of the citation and subsequent proceedings.
4. If the enforcementcompliance official is unable to locate the responsible person for the violation, then the administrative citation shall be mailed to the responsible person in the manner prescribed in Section 12.1.210 of this Title.

5. If no one can be located at the property, then the administrative citation may be posted in a conspicuous place on or near the property and a copy subsequently mailed to the responsible person in the manner prescribed by Section 12.1.210 of this Title.
6. The administrative citation shall also contain the signature of the enforcementcompliance official.
7. The failure of any person with an interest in the property to receive notice shall not affect the validity of any proceedings taken under this Part.

12.06.160 Notice Of Compliance - Procedures

1. When the violation has been corrected, the responsible person or property owner may request an inspection of the property from the Director.
2. Upon receipt of a request for inspection, the Director shall re-inspect the property as soon as practicable to determine whether the violations listed in the notice of violation or the order have been corrected, and whether all necessary permits have been issued and final inspections have been performed.
3. The Director shall serve a notice of satisfaction to the responsible person or property owner as provided in Section 12.2.210 of this Title, if the Director determines that the violation listed in the recorded notice of violation or order has been corrected;
4. All necessary permits have been issued and finalized;
5. All civil penalties assessed against the property have been paid or satisfied; and
6. The party requesting the notice of satisfaction has paid all administrative fees and costs.

7. If the Director denies a request to issue a notice of satisfaction, upon request, the Director shall serve the responsible person with a written explanation setting forth the reasons for the denial. 12.08.110 Declaration Of Purpose

The Council finds that recordation of code enforcementcompliance tax liens will assist in the collection of civil penalties, administrative costs, actual costs, and administrative fees assessed by the administrative code enforcementcompliance hearing program or judicial orders. The Council further finds that collection of civil penalties, costs, and fees assessed for code enforcementcompliance violations is important in deterring future violations and maintaining the integrity of Kearns's code enforcementcompliance system. The procedures established in this Part shall be used to complement existing administrative or judicial remedies that may be pursued to address violations of Kearns Code or applicable state codes.

12.08.120 Procedures For Tax Liens Without A Judgement

1. Once Kearns has abated a property, the Director shall prepare an Itemized Statement of Costs incurred in the removal and destruction of the violations and deliver them to the Director after completion of the work of removing the violations.
2. The Director shall send, by registered mail to the property owner's last known address, a copy of the Itemized Statement of Costs informing the property owner that a code enforcementcompliance tax lien is being recorded for the amount of actual costs of abatement. Payment shall be due within 30 calendar days from the date of mailing.
3. Upon receipt of the Itemized Statement of Costs, the Director, shall record a Code EnforcementCompliance Tax Lien against the property with the County Treasurer's office.
4. The failure of any person with a financial interest in the property to actually receive the notice of the lien shall not affect the validity of the lien or any proceedings taken to collect the outstanding costs of abatement.
