Meeting Minutes

Gina Grandpre called the meeting to order at 2:03 PM.

1. Welcome & Introductions (00:00:00 on audio recording)

a) Committee Roll Call & Other Introductions

2. Public Comments (00:09:57 on audio recording)

There were no public comments.

3. Presentations & Discussion – Water, River & Watershed Focus

a. Jordan River Watershed Council Coordination (00:11:02 on audio recording)

Laura Briefer addressed the committee to explore collaboration opportunities with the Jordan River Watershed Council. The Watershed Council was established in 2020 to coordinate efforts on water related matters, such as water quality, resource management, and conservation. Briefer detailed the Council's geographical scope, inflows, and diverse 36-member composition, which includes cities, counties, and various water related interests. Her goal was to leverage the Technical Advisory Committee's broad representation to discuss how its members could engage or collaborate with the Jordan River Watershed Council on its strategic initiatives.

Soren Simonsen discussed how the Technical Advisory Committee can contribute diverse perspectives to the Watershed Council, emphasizing communications between the Committee and the Watershed Council. Laura shared how the statewide watershed council meetings gather informed perspectives from a wide array of stakeholders and better align resources for watershed protection, noting her role on the Statewide Watersheds Council. She feels that the Jordan River Watershed Council would be better informed about the Jordan River's status and opportunities through engagement with the Committee, including on legislative matters.

Soren shared information about House Bill 348 and House Bill 410, which concern the methods for tracking and measuring the water flow, and expediting water leases, to benefit the Great Salt Lake. House Bill 489 proposes to eliminate the use of retention basins, which raised concerns about water quality and stormwater management. The elimination of retention basins also raises concerns regarding flood control.

b. Education Program Updates & Discussion (00:55:35 on audio recording)

- 1) Great Salt Lake Issues Forum – May 6-8, 2026
- 2) Utah Lake Symposium – Fall 2026
- 3) Salt Lake County Watershed Symposium – November 18-19, 2026

Lynn de Freitas, Executive Director of Friends of Great Salt Lake, shared information regarding the Great Salt Lake Issues Forum scheduled for May 6 - 8, 2026. This event informs the public, community members, and stakeholders about the actions being undertaken to preserve the lake and to facilitate dialogue concerning conservation efforts. Registration for the event is available on their website. Friends of Great Salt Lake has hosted this long-standing annual event since 1996, and Lynn invited Committee members to participate and expressed hope for broad participation. Information and registration is at <https://fogsl.org/issues-forum>. The Jordan River Commission is an event sponsor.

Heather McEwen, representing Utah Lake Authority, presented information about the upcoming 4th Annual Utah Lake Symposium. This event serves as an opportunity for partners to convene and showcase ongoing research and work in and around Utah Lake to the community. The event is scheduled for two days in the fall, on November 6-7. The first day will provide a general overview for the community, while the second day will focus more intently on the scientific aspects of the lake and facilitate detailed discussions that are more technical in nature. The second day will also include a gala intended for fundraising and other purposes.

Lynn Berni, Salt Lake County Watershed Planner, reviewed the upcoming Salt Lake County Watershed Symposium, which is slated for November 18th and 19th, 2026. This is an annual event that has been held since 2007. Its primary goal is to engage the public and stakeholders on matters of watershed health, encompassing community members, partners, non-profit organizations, and governmental entities. While the specific details are still being finalized, there is an intention to host an additional event in conjunction with the symposium. More information is at <https://www.saltlakecounty.gov/watershed/get-involved/watershed-symposium>.

c. Grant Funding Program Updates (01:03:55 on audio recording)

- 1) Nonpoint Source Water Quality State and Federal Grants (see additional information at <https://deq.utah.gov/water-quality/funding-for-nonpoint-source-related-projects>)
- 2) Weed Management & Restoration Grant
- 3) Other Grants & Funding Programs (written report only)

Paul Burnett, Nonpoint Source Program Coordinator with Utah Division of Water Quality, presented an overview of the Nonpoint Source water quality state and federal grant programs. He indicated that annual grants are available. Federal grant applications typically open around October, and are awarded early the following year. State grant applications are currently open through the end of March, and awarded later in the spring. These funding opportunities support various initiatives, from stream restoration to community engagement. The link to the current state grant application is <https://deq.utah.gov/water-quality/funding-for-nonpoint-source-related-projects>.

Jens Ammon, Jordan River Restoration Coordinator, discussed the current Weed Management and Restoration Grant solicitation, which is currently open for proposals. This grant encompasses riparian restoration and invasive species removal. Awards will be made this spring, and funding is available at the start of the next fiscal year beginning July 1, 2026. Proposals for this grant are due on March 20. Interested parties should contact him directly with any inquiries.

Soren Simonsen also shared information about upcoming grant and funding opportunities.
