Amy Crockett

Duchesne County Library

Amy grew up in a small town in northern Utah and has lived in Duchesne for about five years. She currently serves as an Associate Librarian with the Duchesne County Library, where she manages three library outreach programs, conducts the weekly homeschool hour, and curates the Junior and Young Adult collections. Her responsibilities also include designing the monthly newsletter, updating the library website, and processing images for the history center. In addition to her library work, Amy is a licensed massage therapist. She is married with three children and enjoys hiking, paddleboarding, and reading.
