PLANNING COMMISSION | Item #1

Date: September 15th, 2026

Request: Statutory Compliance Amendments, Accessory Dwelling Unit

Address: N/A

Applicant: City of Holladay

File No: 24-04-02-1

Planner: Jonathan Teerlink

GOVERNING ORDINANCES:

Utah Code:

10-21-304 UTAH CODE: DETACHED ACCESSORY DWELLING UNITS

Holladay Code:

13.07.030 ORDINANCE AMENDMENT – PROCEDURE & REQUIREMENTS

REQUIRED PLANNING COMMISSION ACTION:

Legislative

Text or ordinance amendments are proposed changes to the City of Holladay Code. Amendments can be in the form of new, or an alteration of, existing rules or regulations/standards. Such amendments to the City of Holladay ordinance requires the Planning Commission to hold a public hearing and forward a recommendation, with findings, to the City Council for final decision/action.

REQUEST:

Review and recommendation to the City Council to adopt proposed amendments to Holladay's accessory dwelling unit ordinances according to Utah Code §10-21-304 (SB284, 2026)

BACKGROUND:

In 2024 the Planning Commission and City Council elected to allow accessory dwelling units (ADUs) as part of the city's effort to address moderate income housing options within the city. The city worked diligently to review and adopt new standards for both interior and detached ADUs along with applicable provisions. During the 2026 legislative session, SB284 passed new ADU mandates for all cities. As Holladay's ADU ordinance is largely aligned with this statute, some minor changes are required. Those changes are provided in this report.

CITY OF HOLLADAY

EST. 1849 INC. 1999

SUMMARY:

All state mandated standards for detached accessory dwelling units (DADU) are found in Utah code 10-21-304. The section is organized in areas where a municipally may and may not regulate a DADU. A summary of proposed changes required to align Holladay's code with state provisions are as follows. Amended text is attached as an exhibit.

UTAH CODE REFERENCE	HOLLADAY CODE REFERENCE
§10-21-304 (1) A regulation SHALL, • (a): adopt a DADU regulation for all zones that allow a detached single-family home lot	§13.32.060 • (D): As the R-2 and RM zone both allowed single family homes, DADUs are currently allowed, but development standards need to be added to this section. Current standards established for the R-1 zone are proposed
§10-21-304 (3) A regulation may NOT, • (b-c): require more restrictive parking requirements than those in this reference • (d): include design standards that conflict with Utah Code Section 10-20-618.	§13.14.031 • (A5): amend current minimum parking requirements to match • (7, 8); amend building design standards to match.

ANALYSIS:

While the statute requirements are extensive, the commission and council should be commended with their current adopted code. Planning decisions made in 2024 largely align with this state statute and only minor amendments are needed.

TRC COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:

Planning Commission shall hold the required hearing and forward a recommendation to the city council. Discussion should be centered around the proposed amendments as they align with Utah Code. TRC is of the opinion that apart from potential edits, the draft amendments are recommended for a final decision by the city council.

CITY OF HOLLADAY

EST. 1849 INC. 1999

SUGGESTED MOTIONS:

A motion to approve or deny:

["I _____ move to forward a recommendation to the City Council to (approve, deny) an amendment to the City of Holladay Land Use code by adopting changes which align city of Holladay Accessory dwelling unit ordinances with Utah State code 10-21-304, based upon the following findings."]

Staff recommended findings:

- 1) Municipalities are a political subdivision of the State of Utah and shall apply all provisions adopted in Title 10 of the Utah Code (§10-1-106)

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Holladay Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, September 15th 2026 as close to 6:00 P.M. as possible. The proposed amendment is available for public inspection on the City's website www.holladayut.gov and at the Community Development Dept. during normal business hours.

13.06.050.B2 and 13.08

REQUEST:

As a first step in the subdivision process, the applicant, Kasey Kershaw has prepared a concept subdivision plan for "Covington Park". Proposed is an 18-unit townhome project in the Residential Multi-Family zone (RM) accessed from 6060 South. Request is a review of the concept layout and land to home ratio as required by the RM zone as detailed in 13.10A.070.D.

"Covington Place", Concept Plan

CITY OF HOLLADAY

EST. 1849 INC. 1999

BACKGROUND:

Upon receiving approval by the City Council to rezone the project area to the RM zone, The Applicant is following up with development plans for the site. The Applicant has provided a narrative which provide the commission background on the project.

As the project area is uniquely situated at the corner of Highland Drive and 6060 South, The Applicant has been working with the Holladay TRC on concept layouts. Formalizing a plan showing allowable residential homes, the access points and traffic flow is a first critical step prior to preparing formal preliminary level civil drawings for the site.

Discussion regarding the future configuration of the north-bound, one-way lane of Highland drive will be discussed generally as the City of Holladay Engineering department concurrently works toward acceptable and safe solutions. A final configuration will be made available for review at a future Planning commission meeting.

TRC ANALYSIS:

In accordance with Holladay Ord 13.08.010, upon receipt of a complete subdivision application, the Community and Economic Development Director has distributed the application to and has subsequently received recommendations from the Technical Review Committee TRC. Review of submitted elements are compared against administrative procedures. The following is provided to the Planning Commission as a summary of a concept plan drawing according to minimum zone and subdivision standards for an 18-unit residential development in the R-M zone

Zoning, City Planner

- RM zone is in place as approved by the City Council, August of 2026
- CONCEPTUAL PLAN COMPLIANCE: (minimum zone standards; land use, parking etc)
 - Verification of utility connection serve letters (water, power, sewer, gas)
 - Minimum land to home ratio for the RM zone is one home for every 2,722.5 sq ft
 - Project area is 1.24 acres (54,014 sqft) allowing ~19 units

Unified Fire Authority

- Maintain 20' wide drive lane with two access points. The driveways are proposed from 6060 south – no access from Highland Drive.

Engineering, City Engineer

- Maintain 20' wide drive lane with two access points. The driveways are proposed from 6060 south – no access from Highland Drive.

"Covington Place", Concept Plan

CITY OF HOLLADAY

EST. 1849 INC. 1999

TRC COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:

The TRC recommends that the commission hold the required public hearing, consider comments presented and moderate a discussion by The Applicant. The CED Director has found that all required elements of a concept residential subdivision plan have been reviewed and accepted by the TRC and have been determined to be substantially complete as per the City's submission requirements. As only zone compliance and life safety aspects of the project have been verified and presented for review, no development or construction details are proposed at this time (preliminary plan). The TRC can therefore recommend the commission approve a CONCEPT SUBDIVISION PLAN.

SUGGESTED MOTIONS:

A motion to approve or continue:

["I _____ move to approve an CONCEPT SUBDIVISION PLAN for "Covington Park", a 18 unit residential subdivision located at 6037 South Highland Drive based upon the following findings."]

A motion to continue:

["I _____ move to continue the application by Kasey Kershaw for "Covington Park", a 18 unit residential subdivision located at 6037 South Highland Drive, to the next regularly scheduled meeting. Specific element to be returned for review are as follows:"]

Staff Suggested Findings

1. Development details required for a Concept plan and layout have been submitted and reviewed by the TRC
2. Each of the lots comply with the minimum dimension, density requirements for multi-family home development in the RM zone.
3. A concept plan is the first step prior to review of preliminary level civil and site development drawings and details

RE: Covington Park Townhomes – Setback request.

My goal as the developer is to create the best environment for future townhome owners. Parking considerations are a big concern. This is too often overlooked, resulting in guest parking that spills into the neighborhood causing issues with cars on the street and in front of neighboring homes. We're trying to avoid this problem. The solution is to build each townhome with a 2-car garage. In addition, we'd like each unit to have a driveway that is roughly 18' deep to facilitate up to 2 car guest parking per townhome. If this is achieved, we can eliminate traditional guest parking spaces and therefore retain more green, landscaped space. We have also designed the garages to be wide enough to accommodate garbage stored inside the garage. This eliminates the need for a common area dumpster and enclosure... also retaining more green, landscaped space. We are designing this project to retain as many of the large existing trees on the East and West edge of the project.

To accomplish these goals, we need to have the porch and 2nd level deck encroach roughly 4-5 feet into the front yard setback. My understanding is that this is allowed if there are no support columns. We can do that. However, that would change the design to reflect a more modern aesthetic, which contrasts with our "Holladay Village" design concept. I have supplied drawings to support our design concept. We want this project to reflect a higher end look that matches the existing designs of downtown Holladay. The front porch will be well within the landscaped area of our project. We are open to and planning on planting more trees and shrubs in this area than is required. 10 of the units that require this porch space face north and will almost never be seen by the public. Effectively, we are asking for a variance to put up 4 posts per townhome... 2 on the front porch, and 2 to hold up the small 2nd level deck.

If acceptable, we will proceed with final drawings and submit for subdivision approval.

Thank you.
