1. Call to Order - 5:00 p.m.

2. Welcome and Introductions

Mayor Buroker explained since there are so many new members of the commission, she would be the Chair until they were able to elect a new one. All in attendance introduced themselves.

3. Review Purpose of Historic Preservation Commission

Jamie Larsen, City Recorder, read the City code, Chapter 18.63, that pertains to the historic preservation commission.

4. Structure of the Commission

Mayor Buroker proposed that they Commission in May and June and then decide how often they would like to meeting going forward. The dates for future meetings will be Thursday, May 21 and June 18 at 5 PM. Mayor Buroker also proposed that she would chair both of these meetings and then the Commission would elect a new chair going forward.

5. Projects

Mayor Buroker introduced each of the projects that she would like the Commission to focus on and asked for members to decide what project they would be interested in participating in. The projects included Historic Homes, Historic Signs, History Cabinets, Bingham Canyon Mine, Archive of Historic Documents for the Website, and Field Trips at City Hall.

Bill Applegarth expressed interest in the Historic Signs project. Jen Preece has agreed to work on the Historic Cabinets in the Community Center. The following participants expressed interest in the field trips: Rick Bills, Brenda Newman, Linda James and Cheri Colligan.

6. Semiquincentennial Events

During the welcome and introductions, Mayor Buroker reported that the City is doing many things to celebrate the semiquincentennial event this year. She also provided a list of the events to each person.
