

YOUTH MENTORING EVENT

Ages
14-24

Tuesday, October 27, 2026

Goldman Sachs - Downtown SLC

Youth Mentoring Day introduces students and job seekers with disabilities to workplaces where they can learn about various career opportunities.

Mentoring is beneficial for both the business mentors and students to advance their career development and personal growth.

Participants will:

- Observe a corporate work setting
- Identify necessary skills
- Learn about possible internships or employment prospects

First come, first served.

Space is limited and open to all students with disabilities between 14-24 years of age.

Application deadline: October 20, 2026.
