Civic Dialogues (Change.org) Update example 1

What do you want for Clearfield?

35,608 Votes on 424 Ideas

 Dakota 1w ago 63 votes

I feel like taxes are becoming higher and it's making everybody struggle especially with all the prices going up and it's making a lot of family struggle or putting them on the streets

Civic Dialogues (Change.org) Update example 2

The interface shows a proposal titled "What do you want for Clearfield?" with 35,628 votes and 424 ideas. The proposal is by Brook R. Ellison, posted 1 week ago, and has 66 votes. The text of the proposal is: "I would love more public art — murals, sculptures, integrated installations, and functional designs — that captures our shared humanity and reflects community identity. Let's invest in art that inspires people to pause, reflect, and connect." Below the text is a voting slider with a diamond in the center. At the bottom are three buttons: "Disagree" (with a red X), "Pass", and "Agree" (with a green checkmark). A "+ Add New Idea" button is at the very bottom.

Civic Dialogues (Change.org) Update example 4

The image shows a mobile app interface for a civic dialogue. At the top is a logo with a stylized 'A' made of colorful dots. Below it is the question 'What do you want for Clearfield?' in a serif font, with 'for Clearfield?' in a larger, multi-colored font. Underneath the question is the text '35,628 Votes on 424 Ideas'. A user profile card shows a black square icon, the name 'Resident', and '1w ago'. To the right of the profile is '116 votes' and a share icon. The main text of the idea is 'The amount of apartments is getting out of control. Please build new homes that are affordable for the average person.' Below this is a voting instruction: 'Tap to vote, hold if you feel strongly' with a horizontal line and a diamond cursor. At the bottom are three buttons: 'Disagree' with a red 'X' icon, 'Pass', and 'Agree' with a green checkmark icon. At the very bottom is a button with a plus icon and the text 'Add New Idea'.
