Councilmember Department Reports

Councilmember Westover reported for Youth Council, there will be a North Cache Cares Coalition Youth Fair in North Logan on October 2nd, for ninth through twelfth graders.

Councilmember Trexler reported that the deadline for the library calendar is September 20. The library will be teaming up with the Events Council to do a library fundraiser.

Councilmember Simper reported that the Mosquito Abatement will continue fogging until there is a significant cold snap. West Nile Virus has been found all over the valley. The theatre has gone to just 7:00 showings until next summer.

Councilmember Morrison reported that Planning & Zoning is setting up a meeting with JUB to begin updating the master plan. They are still working on short-term rental ordinance which is currently under legal review. There will be a public hearing on September 16 for the rezone application that was received. Mayor Bodily reported that for the sewer project, the landowner has agreed to sell directly to the City. The contract is in legal review.

Councilmember F. Bodily reported the Events Council will be joining the Library to host a Halloween Carnival on Friday, October 30th.

Mayor's Report

- City Party and Fire Station Open House update. Mayor Bodily reported there were about 375 people in attendance. He expressed thanks to the Events Council for their help serving, and also to Dan & Julie Bergeson for their help.

- Utility billing system transition update. Mayor Bodily reported that they had the initial meeting with Caselle, and there will be weekly staff training. We will be transitioning to the new system over the next couple months, and Xpress Bill Pay will no longer be an option as of January 1, 2027.
- Road damage on 2000 South. Mayor Bodily spoke with George Daines and Matt Phillips from the County. They have requested pictures and documentation of the damage to be sent to them.
- Cache Fire Protection District Update. The current debate over the voucher system is how much money will remain at the district level to support a chief and/or administrator.

Mayor Bodily discussed adding people to boards, and the process that the County and some other municipalities use. He will draft a resolution for next month's meeting that outlines a process for people to apply instead of solely having somebody coming up with a name.
