3. Agenda Items

3.a Draper Historical Society Coordination

Nancy Nichols went to the meeting. The Historical Society talked about doing inventory on their assigned times at the museum and how they can organize it. Annie asked about setting another time for Commission members to go do inventory. Annie said October and Melissa Day said the second part of October would work better for her. Annie stated she would send out an email.

3.b Intensive Level Survey and National Register of Historic Places Nomination

Jennifer Jastremsky said the Commission has a better idea of homes that the Commission could look at doing an Intensive Level Survey (ILS) on and possibly a nomination to the National Register of Historic Places. Kirk Huffaker with Kirk Huffaker Preservation Strategies suggested some homes that are eligible in the Reconnaissance Level Survey (RLS). There are some pre-1900 structures that we haven't done yet, as well as some in built between 1900-1939. For the years 1940-1977 there are no structures mentioned on the list. Nancy asked if we have to do the ILS when doing a National Register application for a property. David asked about the Bubble and Bean property since it is up for sale. Jennifer said when an ILS has been done before doing National Register the price is lower since the research has already been done. Christa wanted to know if there is a flat fee for the ILS. Jennifer suggested looking at the RLS to see if there are some houses they want to consider for an ILS or the National Registry. The Enniss/Akagi house has an ILS done. It would be good to attach the titling house to it.

3.c Budget Review

Jennifer said the Commission has about $1,500 left to pay for the RLS. She has penciled in $1,200 for the Smith Rasmussen home tour. Historic Plaques for Isaac Stewart and Smith-Steadman homes will cost about $445 each. Christa was wondering what the Commission's goal is and where we would like to concentrate our efforts. Melissa wanted to know if there will be costs for the Widowmaker event. Jennifer said there will be some. Christa thought it would be good to do a couple of national registry nominations. She asked if the Commission should make a couple of choices and alternates? Commission members should look at some and come with some choices for our next meeting. Annie suggested putting it in the action items for everyone to look at some home/building ideas.

3.d Draper Ethnic and Minority History Research

David brought information about the Akagi house. There is a lot about Nelson Akagi in it, who is a veteran of the Korean War. A lot of people in Draper remember working on the Akagi farm. Nelson has many albums that David would like to scan and identify. It includes a lot of information about the Akagi's and the farm. It has been scanned on a thumb drive that is included in the binder. He decided to give the information to the Historical Society. Annie asked about doing a write up. Perhaps this would encourage other ethnic groups to also share information. Nancy suggested sharing it with the Draper Do You Remember Facebook page. David said he went to the Topaz Museum because Nelson thought there was something in there that was an error. The Museum said they would be willing to correct any errors.

3.e Dominguez-Escalante Expedition Article

Wendy Atzet was not present so the Commission skipped this item.

3.f Slavery in Early Draper

Wendy Atzet was not present so the Commission skipped this item.

3.g Walking Tour Brochures

David hasn't restocked the brochures lately. The library patrons had the greatest interest and the library is closed now until the end of November.

3.h Walk-through Video Tour of Historic Homes

Nancy and Melissa will reach out to Craig Fisher to find out their timeline to do a tour of their home, the Smith Rasmussen House. If it is too far out maybe the Commission can think of doing a video tour of the Smith Steadman house since they are also doing a National Register nomination for it.

3.i Draper Bank Sign Update

Annie will get with Lynne Orgill of the Historical Society with an artifact donation paperwork in case Zions Bank wants the sign, picture, and history. She will let Zions Bank know when they can bring them and if they are all right with pictures being taken when we are giving it to them. David suggested the Commission put what was written up about the history of the Draper Bank in the Draper Forward.

3.j Widow Maker Plaque Ceremony Coordination

Melissa found someone who might have footage so she shared Jason' Wiggins number with him in case he's interested. The next meeting for this is September 30th. Jennifer will be gone the whole week of the ceremony so she can't help with it.

4. Review Action Items for Next Meeting

- a. Jennifer- Send an email with a historic buildings list and links to RLS and ask everyone to come to the October meeting with two suggestions for ILS or National Register Nominations.
