Exhibit "A"

18.150.040 Definitions

"Window Sign"

means signs, including posters, messages, or displays painted, attached, or otherwise displayed on the interior or exterior of a window or door so as to be visible from outside the building. Window sign does not include illuminated or flashing signs. Window sign does not include brown, black, white, tan, gray, or reflective tint, if such tint material is separate and distinct from sign area(s), and is plain and free of any writing, pictorial representation, illustration, emblem, symbol, design, or other figure of similar character.

18.150.090 Exempt signs for which no sign permit is required.

(11) Window Signs. ~~Window signs, including posters, messages or displays painted or mounted on the interior side of a window; provided, that no more than 50 percent of the total window area on which the sign is located is covered.~~ Window signs as defined by Riverton City Code, may only advertise or otherwise reference the business, goods, services, etc specific to that building or tenant space. There is no limitation on the amount of individual or total window(s) coverage, but window signs shall not be located as to block clear view of exits or entrances or to create a safety hazard.

18.150.120 Exceptions and qualifications for specific sign types.

(16) Window Signs. Window signs are only allowed as described in 18.15.090(11).
