RE: Proposal to correct problems with method of obtaining data for future test questions

DOPL adds experimental questions to actual State Exams. This is to obtain data for which questions are appropriate to add to future exams.

Testers are informed of this by this announcement in the candidate bulletin:

Source: STATE OF UTAH DIVISION OF OCCUPATIONAL AND PROFESSIONAL LICENSING ELECTRICIAN EXAMINATIONS CANDIDATE INFORMATION BULLETIN

Wording Issues:

- "Small number" and "may". This is ambiguous and vague.
- "Pretest" does not make sense because these experimental questions are mixed throughout the exam.

Continual experimental questions on every attempt:

- Testers that need additional attempts to pass are forced to participate in the additional experimental questions on every attempt.

Recommendations:

- Change wording on Candidate Bulletin to what is actually happening:
  - Change “small number” to “5 questions on a 50 question exam and 8 questions on an 80 question exam”.
  - Change “pretest” to “spread throughout”

- Number of times testers are subjected to the additional experimental questions to be limited to first attempt only. Important data can be collected on the first attempt and testers won't have the continual burden if additional attempts are needed.
