

Letter of Appreciation

Writing a letter of appreciation is a meaningful way for Americans to Support Our Service Members and bring lasting joy to our troops.

Your letters will be forwarded to Operation Gratitude and included in Care Packages to deployed Troops. Of all the items in these packages, the most cherished are the personal letters of appreciation!

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service Week of January 11 – 15, 2016

Writing Suggestions: Open with salutation, such as “Dear Service Member” or “Dear Hero” – Express your thanks for their selfless service – Share a little about yourself – Avoid political or religious topics
