

2016 FEATURED STORYTELLERS

Ed Stivender is a former high school teacher who has been called “the Robin Williams of storytelling.” He is a Shakespearean actor, banjo player, teacher, Mummer, dreamer and juggler who has traveled around the globe delighting audiences. Ed accompanies himself on banjo while telling stories from diverse cultures from around the world. See edstivender.com for more information

Regi Carpenter is a solo performance artist, author, retreat leader and performance coach. An award winning performer, Regi has toured nationally and internationally. Regi is also the founder of Stories with Spirit, a creative initiative dedicated to bringing songs of joy and stories of hope to the grieving and their caregivers. See regicarpenter.com for more information.

Sam Payne and his performance of his original stories and jazz-inflected folk music has turned the heads of critics and audiences around the west, as well as around the world. Sam also hosts “The Apple Seed: Tellers and Stories,” a daily national radio show on the art of storytelling for BYU radio. See sampayne.com for more information.

2242 East 1000 South
 Rt 2 Box 2384 • Roosevelt, Utah 84066
 435-722-5011 Roosevelt • 435-789-5101 Vernal
 radio@ubtanet.com

Alive After 5 Income and Expenses 2015

Income:

Sponsors	State Farm Insurance- Brian Gorum	500.00
	Uintah Rec.	500.00
	ARMC	500.00
	Commercial Tire	500.00
	Simplot	500.00
	Kings Peak Credit Union	500.00
	Vernal City	3,500.00
	Total Income	$6,500.00

Costs:

Prize Money	2,600.00
Rent Western Park	1,200.00
$400.00 per night
Sound and Lights	1,800.00
Stage Banners and Posters	600.00
News Paper Advertising	400.00
Radio Advertising and Labor	-----
Insurance $1,000,000.00	-----
Total Cost	$6,600.00