TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION

DECISIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

ADMINISTRATIVE BUSINESS:

Mr. Steinagel, Mr. Walker, Mr. Furlong, Ms. Dennis and Mr. Taylor presented the Board survey results and provided Board member training.

DISCUSSION ITEMS:

Supervision requirement

Mr. Ishihara reviewed the supervision requirement for each of the mental health professions, noting that each mental health profession outlines this requirement differently in their own practice act rule. The Division is proposing that the supervision format/requirement mirror each other. The Board discussed adding a requirement that the supervisor and supervisee have a formal contract between them. The Board briefly discussed changing the requirement that indicates a supervisor can have no more than three supervisees without Board approval. The Board expressed interest to raise the quality of the supervision. Mr. Ishihara will develop language for the Mental Health Boards to review.

Remote Supervision

Mr. Ishihara reviewed remote supervision with the Board. Mr. Ishihara will develop language for the Mental Health Boards to review.

CE requirement

Out of order on the agenda:

Mr. Ishihara reviewed the different CE requirements for each of the mental health professions. The Division is proposing to change the formatting to standardize the information. Mr. Ishihara will develop language for the Mental Health Boards to review.
