

The audio recording system was not properly operated for the July 12, 2016 meeting of the Judicial Conduct Commission. The error was not discovered until after the meeting was over. Consequently, there is no audio recording available for the July 12 meeting.