MEETING DATE: August 8, 2018

SUBJECT: Work is the Way

SUBMITTED BY: Housing and Community Development (HCD) Staff

SUMMARY:

The Legislature, approved $160,000 for the Work is the Way initiative administered by the Utah Restaurant Association. This funding requires State Homeless Coordinating Committee approval.

Work is the Way Restaurant and Foodservice Education Initiative provides training for a career in the restaurant and food industry. The Utah Restaurant Association proposes to utilize this funding for a five week paid training course, where students will learn about the food service industry, customer relations, standard accounting practices, management and life skills in association with the preparation and nutritional values of food and food products, knife skills certification, and food safety manager certification. Students will complete 200 hours of training and prepare to take the Food Manager Professional certificate testing at the completion of the training. The funding will provide 4 training sessions per year.

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS:

HCD staff recommend funding the Utah Restaurant Association, Work is the Way program, the full amount of $160,000 as proposed.
