15 min.

The Council will be briefed about an ordinance relating to the Central Business Improvement Area that will start in April 2019. The ordinance accepts and adopts the findings of the Board of Equalization, confirms and adopts the assessment list, and levies an assessment on properties within the area. The assessment would continue a funding mechanism for downtown promotions, marketing, and other activities for a three-year period. The area is made up of about 50 city blocks and is currently managed by The Downtown Alliance under a contract with the City (the current contract expires April 21, 2019 and with a 3-year option to renew).

~~The Council will receive a follow-up briefing about the final steps for an ordinance that would designate the new Central Business Improvement Area starting in April 2019. The designation would continue a funding mechanism for downtown promotions, marketing and advocacy, and would re-establish a special assessment on property in the boundary area for a three-year period. Residential, ecclesiastical, government properties, and properties valued at less than $20,000 would be exempt from the assessments. The area is made up of about 50 City blocks and is currently managed by The Downtown Alliance under a contract with Salt Lake City.~~
