3. Citizen comments

No citizens were present.

4. Discussing Changes of Monroe City General Plan.

Zach Leavitt with six counties came to look over the general plan one more time to see if any more changes were wanting to be made before the public hearing. None of the commissioners had new changes. Commissioner Cartwright did ask the question about how we can better enforce yards from getting out of control and if that is the Planning and Zoning's job. Commissioner Lee let the commissioners know that it was not their responsibility to enforce or oversee but they could make changes to the nuisance ordinance to improve it if necessary. Zach reinforced that answer saying that the general plan is more of the city's vision and what the city would like to see happen. The commissioners agreed to move forward with the proposed changes of the general plan for the public hearing next month.

5. Adjournment

Commissioner Barnson moved to adjourn at 7:46 P.M. Seconded by Commissioner Roberts. All were in favor. Motion Passed 4-0. Meeting adjourned.
