

TOQUERVILLE CITY
Special Meeting Minutes
NOTICE OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS TRAINING SESSION
March 29, 2019 at 8:30 am – 2:00 pm
The Heritage Town Square at 114 S Mill St. Virgin, Utah

City officials from the towns of Virgin, Rockville, Springdale, Toquerville, and New Harmony attended a joint training session on Friday March 29, 2019 from 8:30 am to 2:00 pm. No actions were taken by any of the public bodies. The public was invited to attend.

The training session began at 9:00 a.m. The Springdale Town Clerk, Darci Carlson gave a presentation on public service. She provided tips and advice to local officials on how to be an effective public servant and how to enjoy it at the same time.

The five county government association provided information and tools regarding general planning growth impacts, capital improvement planning, and affordable housing planning.

A short lunch break was taken and the meeting reconvened with Cameron Diehl, the executive director of the Utah League of Cities and Towns to discuss the 2019 legislative session. He described the newly proposed and passed legislative actions. He explained how those laws will affect local government and what changes may need to occur.

Utah Land Use Academy presenter, David Church gave valuable information regarding the requirements and recommended practices of conducting Utah open and public meetings. He briefly discussed and explained the importance of ethical behavior in a municipal government. The meeting adjourned at 2:00 p.m.
