Last month we had 18 traffic stops, 24 calls, 05 call outs and 01 County assist. There were no use of force incidents.

Major crimes- 1. Voyeurism of a child. 2. Four traffic stops that had warrants.

Nuisances- There has been an increase with calls on stray animals in the Town.

Community oriented policing- We had four families who put in for Shop with a Cop. Three of those families were selected and it will be taking place on Saturday December 14, 2019. The Police Department would like to thank Councilwoman Judy Bori for all she has done being on the Council.

b. Stockton Fire Department-Chief Huffman/Assistant Chief Thatcher

Last month we had 13 calls in total, 7 were in the County and 6 were in Town.

Libby Bowden finished up her EMT class and took her National Registry test and passed, she is officially an EMT. The Fire Department was able to participate in the Tree Lighting and Light Parade, thank you to the Police Department and the Town for putting that together. Chief Huffman, Assistant Chief Thatcher and Amy Lyman attended a Wild Land Firefighter Type One Crossover class in November it was good training for the Fire Department.

The Elections for the Fire Department were in November. Chief Huffman was re-elected as the Fire Chief along with Assistant Fire Chief Thatcher. Captain Carlson and Amy Lyman were elected as Captains.

c. Recreation (Parks)

We had our Tree Lighting and Light Parade last week and the outcome was great. A huge thank you to our Police Chief Travis Romney, our Treasurer Elisa Canon and her husband Micheal Canon for all their help with the set up and helping put everything together.
