

UTAH OPEN & PUBLIC MEETINGS ACT

Utah Code §§ 52-4-101 et seq.

What is OPMA?

OPMA requires that the public's business be done in public. It provides requirements for conducting meetings of public officials, who have the authority to make policy and budget decisions in the public's interest. It requires that there be notice and an open deliberative process before a public body votes on matters under its jurisdiction. ALL votes are taken in public.

What is a Public Body?

OPMA defines a Public body as:

Any administrative, advisory, executive, or legislative body of the state or its political subdivisions that:

1. Is created by the Utah Constitution, statute, rule, ordinance, or resolution;
2. Consists of two or more persons;
3. Expends, disburses, or is supported in whole or in part by tax revenue; and
4. Is vested with the authority to make decisions regarding the public's business.

What is a Meeting?

OPMA defines a Meeting as:

“The convening of a public body or specified body, with a quorum present, including a workshop or an executive session, whether in person or by means of electronic communications, for the purpose of discussing, receiving comments from the public about, or acting upon a matter over which the public body or specific body has jurisdiction or advisory power.”

What isn't a meeting?

OPMA says a meeting does not mean a chance gathering or social gathering.

What is a Quorum?

“Quorum” means a simple majority of the membership of a public body, unless otherwise defined by applicable law.

NOTICE and AGENDA

NOTICE

- At least 24 hrs. in advance of meeting;
- Posted in body's office; and
- Posted on Utah Public Notice Website; and
- Newspaper of general circulation.

AGENDA

- Posted with notice;
- Must be “reasonably specific” (an average person would be on notice as to all topics of discussion and action planned for the meeting).

Notice Requirements

In addition, a public body that holds regular meetings that are scheduled in advance over the course of a year shall give public notice at least once a year of its annual meeting schedule.

Records of Open Meetings

Do we have to keep minutes and/or recordings?

- YES TO BOTH!
- Even though there is a recording, the approved written minutes will be the official record.
- Include both written minutes and recording of open meetings as public records.
- Public body shall establish and implement procedures for the public body's approval of the written minutes of each meeting.

Electronic Meetings

Do I have to attend meetings in person? May a meeting be held without people in the same room?

Public bodies may meet by phone or other electronic means that allows participants to hear or observe communications.

- The public body must adopt by resolution, rules, or ordinance governing the use of electronic meetings.
- Notice requirements still apply.
- The public must have a means to attend or participate.

Electronic Message Transmissions

The Open Public Meetings Act does not restrict members of a public body from transmitting an electronic message to other members of the public body when the body is not in an open meeting.

Emergency Meetings

Due to unforeseen circumstances that must be articulable.

- An example might be a broken water line that cannot wait for the next scheduled meeting, etc.
- Emergency!

Requires best notice practicable.

Cannot be held unless an attempt has been made to notify all members of the public body and a majority of the members approve the meeting.

KEEP OUT

Closed Meetings

- A public body can go from an open meeting into a closed meeting under certain circumstances.
- 52-4-205 lists all of the reasons for closing an open meeting.
- A quorum must be present. A motion to close the meeting must be made, naming the specific statutory reason for closure. Then, a roll call vote must be taken. Two-thirds of the body must approve the closed meeting.
- If the closed meeting is held to discuss 52-4-205(1)(a), (1)(f), or (2), the presiding member of the public body is to execute a sworn statement that the sole purpose of the closed meeting was to discuss these issues. No recording is required.
- If the meeting is closed for any other statutory reason, a recording shall be made, and written minutes can also be made. These are protected records under GRAMA.
- NO VOTES ARE TAKEN IN CLOSED MEETINGS.

Reasons a Meeting May be Closed

1. To discuss character, professional competence, or physical or mental health of an individual (doesn't require recording if the chair signs an affidavit after);
2. To discuss collective bargaining;
3. To discuss pending or reasonably imminent litigation;
4. To discuss the purchase, exchange, or lease of real property, if public discussion would disclose the appraisal value or prevent the transaction on the best possible terms;
5. To discuss the sale of property, if public discussion would disclose the appraisal value or prevent transaction on best possible terms as long as there's public notice of sale and terms are disclosed before the sale;
6. To discuss security personnel, devices, or systems (doesn't require recording if the chair signs an affidavit after);
7. To discuss investigative proceedings regarding allegations of criminal misconduct; and
8. A few other exceptions relating to the Legislature, Higher Education and the Utah Procurement Code.

What is Forbidden During a Closed Meeting?

You may not:

- Approve an ordinance, resolution, rule, regulation, contract, or appointment.
- Interview a person to fill an elected position.
- Take final action: Final votes must be open and on the record.

What Happens if Someone Violates OPMA?

A court can void any action in violation of the law:

- Sometimes a violation can be cured by discussing and taking a public vote in a subsequent meeting.
- May have to pay court costs and attorney fees.
- “In addition to any other penalty under this chapter, a member of a public body who intentionally violates or intentionally abets or advises in violation of the closed meeting provisions of this chapter is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.” (6 months in jail and/or $1,000 fine)

Remedies & Enforcement

Voiding final action

- Any final action taken in violation of Section 52-4-201*, 52-4-202*, 52-4-207, or 52-4-209 is voidable by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- Must file a complaint with the court within 90 days of final action. If the alleged violation involves bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness the Complaint must be filed within 30 days.
- Does not apply to some notice exemptions for municipalities, special district with less than $1 million annual budgets.*

Who can take action?

- Attorney General and County Attorneys
- Any party denied a right by the action taken
- Court may order compliance and enjoin violation
- Aggrieved party may recover attorney's fees

TRAINING

The presiding officer of a public body shall ensure that the body receives OPMA training on an annual basis.

Common Violations of OPMA

- Closing meeting without members of the public body voting first in an open meeting to close the meeting.
- Conducting a closed meeting for reasons other than those allowed by OPMA.
- Taking official or final action in a closed meeting.
- Failing to properly provide notice of a public meeting.

Parting Tips and Helpful Suggestions:

- 24 hour Notice
- Be specific with agenda items
- No “old business, new business”
- “Action taken on items discussed in closed meeting” is not enough
- Close meetings only for allowed statutory purposes and follow the process
- Provide minutes in a timely manner
- Don’t text during meetings
- Receive training once a year
- Err on the side of transparency
- When in doubt, consult your legal counsel
