Unfinished Business/Report of Council Members

Mayor Sorensen-

275 North Main trailer park came in and got approval to put some trailers at the trailer court. They were placed about 5 feet apart. Mayor Sorensen talked to Tracy at the Sanpete County Building Department, Tracy stated that Utah fire code says they have to be at least 10 feet apart. Tammy commented that they had moved two old trailers out and moved two different trailers in, and placed them in the exact same spot the old trailers were at. Eric at 275 North Main LLC understood at said he would get them moved.

Mayor Sorensen talked to the county about what the city needs to get the new city hall plans finalized. Mayor Sorensen contacted an architect, Randy Smith, from St. George. Randy sent a proposal for $3,000. With the work Kathleen Black has done on the plans, it should be a total cost of $5,000-$6,000. Once the plans are finalized they will be put out to bid.

Jon Hansen-

City attorney, Kevin Daniels will get the paperwork to the city by Friday, February 21 for the property owners to sign on the culinary line project.

David Beck-

Crack seal will be starting on Thursday, February 20. Tom, David, and Jaden need to sit down with Ryan Savage and Lane Torgerson to finish out the road project.

Jonah Christensen-

Mayor Sorensen had Jordan Piep's dog come up to him again. Mayor tried to get in contact with the owners, and no one was home. Jonah has also tried multiple times and can never find anyone home.

Jackie Huff-

Jackie is wondering if we can really try and keep the weeds mowed this year. Also would like to get letters sent out about a few ordinances that we could remind the citizens about such as weeds, excess vehicles, etc. Stewart is in contact with an old employee that would like to come back and work part-time/temporary for the spring/summer.

Jaden Sorenson-

Jaden attended the annual irrigation meeting. Currently reservoirs are holding as much water as was used during the 2018 season. Irrigation company is installing some controls to see where the water is going. They also talked about metering each pond. David mentioned there is money available through the department of natural resources. They will pay 70% for anything that increases efficiency and 100% for flood control. Needs to be applied for in March, and has to be done by a taxing agency.

Tammy Winegar

Twisted Coconut has garbage cans set out, they are not currently signed up for garbage through the city via White's Sanitation. Cans tip over and garbage is being scattered all over main street. Jason Dallam has a dumpster in the back by his shop. Juanita Christiansen purchased the Twisted Coconut. Jaden, Jackie and Tom will get ahold of Jason and Juanita and get the garbage issue taken care of.

David Beck made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Jaden Sorenson. Carries 5-0. Meeting adjourned at 8:33 PM.
