WORK SESSION

Board Update

The Board viewed the Governor's News Release with information on the Coronavirus pandemic. Schools throughout the state will be on dismissal as a preventive measure.

Superintendent Larry Bergeson and Steven Dunham shared a letter that will be shared with parents on the dismissal and programs throughout the District. We will still have Spring Break next week. Remote education will not start until the following Wednesday. We will only have three days unless they extend the dismissal. UHSAA practices and all activities have been cancelled. The Board and administration discussed the District's plans for all employees and students.

Board Member Cox presented a motion to go into a closed session at 5:06 p.m. Board Member Blake seconded the motion that passed unanimously.
