IV. NEW BUSINESS

1. Hinckley Pioneer Day Celebration Planning

Mayor Brian Florang thanked everyone for attending the special meeting and noted the reason the town is doing things different is because of COVID-19. Brian stated he has had a conversation with our district person at the Central Utah Public Health Department and based on Millard County now in green status or the new normal, we can have these events. There are some indicators that are not in our favor. Millard County has increased from 6 cases to 13 and some of those cases are now in West Millard. The State of Utah is # 2 in the country for transmission rate. Mayor Florang said he would like to take the position to go through the planning process and do everything we can to pull off a successful event.

Rodeo Discussion and Decisions

After much discussion about the rodeo, the council and rodeo committee agreed on the following:

An open/jackpot rodeo will be put on by Pete Poulsen and Creg Terry.
The town will not require Pete Poulsen to rent the arena.

The rodeo will start at 8 pm.

Hinckley Town will provide the sound system for the rodeo and pay $200.00 for a rodeo announcer.

Hinckley Town will provide an ambulance for the rodeo.

No rodeo tickets will be sold, admittance to the rodeo will be free.

The cheerleaders will provide concessions at the rodeo.

The town will rent two mobile restrooms and four hand sanitizing stations to be placed at the rodeo grounds and this cost may be covered through the CARES ACT funding.

Morning Salute, Fun Run, Parade, and Park Celebration Discussion

Council Member Chris Palmer will take care of the morning salute.

Mayor Florang asked about the Fun Run. Clerk Tresa Martin said the Hinckley Lions Club has not yet made a decision on the Fun Run but she will let the town know by next week.

The town office will advertise for parade entries in the newspaper, social media and flyers.

Council Member Tyrel Brown said Joy Partridge will be helping with the parade.

The council and staff reviewed the celebration planning document and tasks were assigned.

Mayor Florang will ask Donald Brown to extend the offer to the Seniors to attend the parade.

The council decided to ask Beatrice Schena to be the Grand Marshal for the celebration.

Council Member Chris Palmer will ask someone to be Speaker of the Day.
