Unfinished Business

A. Public Art Projects

- a. Trail Wall Mural – Details for mural removal, maintenance, and replacement schedule were discussed. Council members preferred the idea of painting over rather than removing paint from surface when new artwork is scheduled for installation. Council members would like artists to have touch-up opportunities while their work is on display. Council members were also concerned about the timeline for art to change over, but deferred any specific detail discussions until a later meeting and further along in the project.
- b. Light Pole Banners – Banner artwork voting was reviewed. Eight designs had the most votes (1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 10, 28, 29) and were discussed. Piece 28 was identified as one that, while impressive, did not fit the look and feel of South Jordan and was replaced with design 9. Jason motions to approve. Heather seconds. Designs 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 9, 10, and 29 approved. Council members did request that design 28 be kept in mind for a future utility box design and that the entries be sent a thank you for their submissions and note that their art may be considered for future projects.
- c. Live Daybreak Utility Box Review and Approval – The Council reviewed the two pieces of updated artwork and found no issues. Laura motions to approve. Janis seconds.

New Business

- A. Crosswalk Murals – Council members discussed the mural project and were concerned that some artist proposals may request time outside of the farmers market, specifically at night when it is cooler. The Arts Council requested City staff look into the possibility of closing the crosswalk areas at night if needed. The Council also requested canopies be arranged for during the farmers market in order to provide shade. When the RFP is opened, Arts Council members would like the information in order to share in their networks.

Adjourn – Heather motioned to adjourn. Janis seconds motion. Meeting adjourned.
