VIII. NEW BUSINESS

1. Establish Employee Disciplinary Action Appeals Board

This agenda item was discussed in closed session.

2. Linda Ekins 2019 Irrigation Water Issues – Ray Searle

Council Member Ray Searle said Linda Ekins asked the council to discuss a flood irrigation problem. Ray noted when Linda irrigated her property in 2019, neighbor Dan Bliss reported to Linda that his basement flooded. Linda Ekins believes the irrigation water followed the town sewer line back and flooded the Bliss' basement. It only happened once, and she has not irrigated her property since that incident. Linda asked if the town would investigate this problem. The town council will seek more information from Dan Bliss before any action or investigation will be taken.

3. Kaitlyn Layton – Request to Host Benefit Rodeo at Hinckley Rodeo Grounds

Mayor Brian Florang had a discussion with Rodeo Chairman Donald Brown about a benefit rodeo. Hinckley Town has provisions in place to let parties use the grounds with a flat fee plus hourly rate to use the lights. The town will take the deposit to use the grounds, take a zero charge on the fees and would return the deposit for contribution to the benefit if the rodeo grounds are cleaned and cared for appropriately. All Council members agreed.

4. Anthony Hathaway – Appeal

This agenda item was held in closed session.
