AGENDA ITEM SUMMARY: LIMIT 150 WORDS

On March 12, 2020, Mayor Overson declared a local state of emergency in response to the COVID-19 public health threat. State code requires that a local state of emergency cannot exceed 30 days without the consent of the municipality's governing body. On April 15, 2020, the Council consented to extending the proclaimed state of emergency to May 21, 2020. On May 20, 2020, the Council consented to extending the proclaimed state of emergency to June 3, 2020. On June 3, 2020, the Council consented to extending the proclaimed state of emergency to June 17, 2020. On June 17, 2020, the Council consented to extending the proclaimed state of emergency to July 1, 2020. On August 5, 2020, the Council consented to extending the proclaimed state of emergency to September 2, 2020. On September 2, 2020, the Council consented to extending the proclaimed state of emergency to October 7, 2020. This resolution allows the Council, as the City's governing body, to consent to extending the local state of emergency to January 6, 2021.

TAYLORSVILLE, UTAH
RESOLUTION NO. 20-39

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF TAYLORSVILLE CONSENTING TO AN EIGHTH EXTENSION OF THE LOCAL STATE OF EMERGENCY PROCLAIMED IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19.

WHEREAS, the Taylorsville City Council (the “Council”) met in regular session on September 2, 2020, to consider, among other things, consenting to a seventh extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, in recent months, the global community has been and continues to experience the unprecedented rapid spread of COVID-19, a virus for which there currently is no vaccine or treatment for, and which appears to be highly contagious; and

WHEREAS, the rapid spread of COVID-19 presents a very real threat to public health, safety, and welfare, potentially endangering a majority of the City’s population; and

WHEREAS, COVID-19 currently potentially threatens all areas within the boundaries of the City of Taylorsville; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to executive order signed by Utah Governor Gary R. Herbert on March 6, 2020, the State of Utah declared a state of emergency in Utah due to the global outbreak of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the proclamation signed by Salt Lake County Mayor Jennifer Wilson on March 6, 2020, Salt Lake County also declared a county state of emergency due to the global outbreak of coronavirus; and

WHEREAS, on March 12, 2020, pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. §§53-2A-205 AND 208, Mayor Kristie S. Overson issued a proclamation declaring a local state of emergency in response to the global and local COVID-19 public health threat; and

WHEREAS, on April 15, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-10 consenting to the extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to May 21, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on May 20, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-14 consenting to the second extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to June 3, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on June 3, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-19 consenting to the third extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to June 17, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on June 17, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-25 consenting to the fourth extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to July 1, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on July 1, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-31 consenting to the fifth extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to August 5, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on August 5, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-33 consenting to the sixth extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to September 2, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on September 2, 2020, the Council approved Resolution No. 20-35 consenting to the seventh extension of the local state of emergency proclaimed in response to COVID-19 to October 7, 2020; and

WHEREAS, it has become apparent that there are compelling reasons to continue to extend the local state of emergency in order to continue exercising certain measures intended to curb the spread of COVID-19 within the local, county, and state community to further protect the health, safety, and welfare of the City's citizens; and

WHEREAS, UTAH CODE ANN. §§53-2A-208(1)(B) requires the governing body of a municipality to consent to continuing or renewing a declared local state of emergency beyond thirty (30) days; and

WHEREAS, after careful consideration, the Council has determined that it is in the best interest of the health, safety and welfare of the City's citizens to continue to extend the declared local state of emergency in order to continue to protect citizens from the potential threat of COVID-19.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Taylorsville City Council as follows:

1. The Taylorsville City Council hereby consents to extending the proclamation of local emergency issued by Mayor Kristie S. Overson on March 12, 2020, until January 6, 2021; and
2. The Mayor and City Administration are hereby directed to provide regular updates to the City Council regarding the COVID-19 threat; the Mayor shall give such updates at least bi-weekly, if not more often; and
3. The Mayor and City Administration shall continue to monitor federal, state and county orders relating to COVID-19.

This Resolution, assigned Resolution No. 20-39, shall take effect immediately upon passage and acceptance as provided herein.
