Members Absent: Melanie Kirkland, Jennifer Fisher

Minutes

- A. July Minutes
 - a. Questions on Minutes? None.
 - b. Motion to approve: Janis/Second: Dionne

Unfinished Business

- A. Public Art Projects
 - a. Trail Wall Murals
 - Update on UDOT contract progress: haven't heard back from them.
 - Working on sign/advertising to post on future mural location to let people know it is coming soon. Let Haley know if you have ideas on wording or text to generate community excitement.
 - Will have submissions similar to recent crosswalk RFP.
 - b. Light Pole Banners
 - Final version shared by Haley with updated official City font.
 - Meeting participants were happy with design/mockup.
 - Staff recommends carefully selecting areas that see a lot of traffic to start with and stay within original project budget and add banners in other budget years/as desired. Arts council members were supportive of suggestion.
 - Question: Will the banners be up year round? No- holiday and other city event banners may be switched out.
 - c. Crosswalk Murals
 - Brianna Beck Proposal
 - Dale Andrus Proposal
 - Evan Memmott Proposal
 - Mariah Stubbs Proposal
 - Scott Stanley Proposal
 - Sydney Porter Williams

Arts Council voted on Scott and Evan's designs for the crosswalks. Heather will draft an email and send it to Haley for ideas on how approach Scott and Evan on working together on cohesive designs so project can be completed within unique timeline at Farmers Market events.

New Business

- A. Project/Programming discussion for 20/21

- a. New ideas to share/suggest:
 - i. In response to COVID- would like to see more performance art since Council has been strong on visual arts.
 - ii. Budget to set aside for theater production was discussed. Jason was very certain Sunil said Arts Council was told they could set aside funds for future use. Janell was told that they could not. Staff will clarify with Jason and Sunil on this topic before next meeting.
 - iii. Arts Council would like to continue writer's conference.
 - iv. Art show hosted at Community Center was discussed. Arts Council would like to explore that option and not lose momentum for the event.
 - v. Artisan Market ideas were discussed, both in conjunction with and separate from Farmer's Market.

Adjourn - Motion to adjourn: Heather/Second: Janis
