Good morning ladies!

I am writing you concerning your appointments to the Planning Commission which expire the end of this year. As you may know, Joyce has her home in escrow and will be leaving Rockville the end of November. With her departure, our PC will have only 4 members until such time as a replacement can be found. I know you have both spoken about retiring from the PC, but my hope is that you will consider staying on for another term. There are several unresolved Land Use Code issues still in discussions which you have been an important part of.

If you have any recommendations for someone to replace Joyce, please let me know at your earliest convenience.

Please do not hesitate to call me should you have questions or comments.

Thank you for your service to the Town!
