CHAIR'S REPORT

There is not a lot to report on due to the pandemic. Daryl Tucker has been Speaking with Julie Ahlborn concerning available grants, using them before the end of the fiscal year.

STAFF REPORT

Dr. Rita Wright presented the City Arts Collection Policy at the City Work Study Meeting this evening. It was well accepted by the City Council members. Dr. Wright also reported that the City has appointed Jack Urquhart to oversee the Springville Arts festivals. He is excited to fill this position and is starting on ideas and proposals. He will be invited to attend the next Arts Commission meeting.

Finance Report

There is not much to report the budget remains the same. No money has been spent on grants. Discussion on encouraging people and groups to apply.

Grant Approvals:

Folkfest will be held at the end of July (if all goes well with Covid) which is in the next fiscal year. If they would like to apply for funds to be used in June for advertising or other needs they are welcome to. Daryl Tucker will follow up with Lin Elliot to go over their needs.

Art City Days are being planned.

Sunday Concerts are still postponed. Are virtual concerts possible?

Daryl Tucker will Follow up With Julie Ahlborn to discuss possible small grants for teachers.

ITEMS:

Jenny Coates, Daryl Tucker, and Kim Stinson will work together on ideas to advertise that grants are available. Serve Daily and Facebook was mentioned as possible places.

Ginny Ackerson has been approached by a group wanting to do a patriotic music concert on or near the fourth of July. Cory or Bradley from Recreation will need to be contacted for guidelines before approval.
