:01 Kena Mathews welcomed everyone and meeting attendees introduced themselves.

1:59 Minutes from the December 2, 2020 meeting were approved unanimously. Margaret Black made the motion, David Moulton seconded it.

2:17 Irv Hale and Dan Blanchard from the Utah Department of Corrections shared information and answered questions and concerns about the new Utah County Community Correctional Center to be located at the old Boy Scout Office on 800 North in Orem.

1:03:44 Kena introduced those that joined the meeting late.

1:05:29 Commission members voiced concerns and asked questions about some neighborhood issues including the water tank and short term rentals in the neighborhoods. City Manager, Jamie Davidson, helped answer questions and also discussed the Accessory Dwelling legislation being considered at the Utah State Legislature during the current session.

1:22:42 Margaret Black shared information about a new resource for home repairs, etc. called the Fuller Center for Housing. Kena also mentioned the City's critical home repair program and the neighborhood and resident resources pages on the website as other good resources for residents in need.

1:26:41 Kena explained that the City has created a general email address for neighborhood resident questions and concerns. The email is oremneighborhoods@orem.org. Kena will manage the email and forward anything directed to the Commission to the appropriate Commission member.

1:27:30 Kena explained that the next ONC meeting will be held in the next month or so and the topic will be neighborhood planning. She encouraged Commission members to read their own neighborhood plan prior to the meeting. Plans can be found at orem.org/planning.

1:29:35 Meeting adjourned.
