Committee Business:

1. Wes Jenkins has received a new assignment that will take him away from his Syracuse DPC assignment. Hopefully, there will be someone called in his place. He has offered to send his alternate to the meeting in his place. Wes: please get the connection information to him so if needed he can connect to the Zoom meeting.
2. Discussion of the April 17th Disaster Exercise. Erin: We will need the Zoom Meeting ID to publish in the Syracuse Connection Magazine and distribute throughout the city on Facebook and other forums.
 - Discuss another option for a place on April 17th -- The Community Center has been reserved on Saturdays through June as the community Arts council has it reserved since last year when it was able to be used.
 - Thanks, Dan for the great advertising Blurbs
 - Report on the Door Prizes (10) progress
 - Did it get published in the City's Facebook page?
 - Have the District Leaders disseminated the information to their respective area leaders?

At the conclusion of the Disaster Exercised, the 5 District Coordinators will check in on the same Zoom meeting with the city to discuss the results and to award the door prizes. Each coordinator will take two winners' names/phone numbers to congratulate them. The exercise will then be officially closed.

 - Discuss how to award the door prizes.
 - o Come to the city to pick them up?

3. Lane: Volunteers that will help finish the filming of the RDAP video...how can we help?
4. Terry Palmer report on J&J Zoom Presentation which is for March 13th at 10:00 am. We need to decide on the venue.
5. Discuss the next Zoom Presentation: topic and date.
6. Show presentation by Layton West.
